CARLISLE — The Nicholas County Junior High Bluejackets lost their opener with Mason County by a slim, 28-22, margin Thursday afternoon despite a last second 65 yard touchdown run by Tim Hopkins.

Mason County jumped out to an early lead in halfway through the first quarter with a touchdown by Trey Clark. The two point conversion was successful for a Mason County 8-0 lead.

That lead was cut to two points into the second quarter. The Jackets drive for the goal was given a boost in the first quarter off a 35 yard run point conversion allowed them to leave the field with a respectable 28-22 loss.

At the top of the second, the Jackets were inches from the goal line, but the Royals defense was keeping them out.

At fourth down, Jackets George Mitchell broke the stand to put the Jackets at an 8-6 score.

Clark scored twice in the second quarter for the Royals to lead, 22-6.

Hopkins was the first Jackets to cut back into the Royals lead as he broke through the line for a whopping 75 yard touchdown from the Jackets own 25. With Broderick making the two point conversion, the score was 22-14 in favor of Mason at the half.

Clark scored in the third to force the Jackets back to a 28-14 deficit. But it would be the last time they scored.

With 38 seconds left, Hopkins took a huge 85 yard touchdown. Though they wouldn't catch Mason, a two

Fairview football preview

FAIRVIEW — The Nicholas County Bluejackets begin their foray into district competition this Friday at Fairview High School at 8:00 p.m.

It also marks the beginning of a grueling four game fight against all but one of its district foes. If the Bluejackets are to go on to post-season competition, they must defeat two of the next four teams.

"This Friday is the real beginning of our season. Whatever we do against teams outside of our district, if we don't beat two of the district teams, our season ends with Bath County," Bluejackets Head Coach Greg Letcher said.

This year they are older and out to prove the Eagles are every bit a contender for the district championship.
