

University of Kentucky to sponsor cheerleading camp

The University of Kentucky Wildcat cheerleaders will host the 1993 summer cheerleading, drill team, and dance camps June 25-July 23 on the Lexington campus.

For the first time there will be a cheer camp (June 25-27) just for graduating high school students who want to earn college cheerleading skills.

Senior high, junior high and middle school cheerleaders are invited to attend one of the three to four-day instructional sessions.

Free shade trees to be given to new Arbor Day members

Ten free shade trees will be given to each person who joins The National Arbor Day Foundation during April 1993. The free trees are part of the nonprofit Foundation's Trees for America campaign. The ten shade trees are Red Oak, Weeping Willow, Sugar Maple, Green Ash, Thornless Honeylocust, Pin Oak, River Birch, Tuliptree, Silver Maple, and Red Maple.

The three cheer sessions will be July 6-9, July 10-13, July 15-16, and July 22-23. Drill teams and dance squads are invited to attend sessions on July 6-9 and July 20-23.

Other activities include a subscription to the Foundation's "Arbor Day" news magazine, The Tree Book Review, the Foundation's tree planting and care, and a membership card.

A "super star" drill team of instructors from the NCA will conduct a drill team camp July 6-9. Instruction will focus on dance-drill teams, pom squads, and tall flags. Classes for dance-drill and pom pom will include routines and exits, captain's corner, marching routines for parades, basketball court and contest routines, plus beginner, intermediate and advanced-level routines. Tall flags classes - flag fundamentals, marching maneuvers, charting of music and field shows.

Instructors from the Universal Cheerleaders Association will receive in-depth instruction in Jazz routines, pom pom routines, high kick and novelty routines and will participate in private coaching sessions each day.

Students participating in the camp will be housed in the air-conditioned Kirwan-Blanding residence hall complex. Meals will be served from the Kirwan-Blanding Commons facility. For more information, contact T. Lynn Williamson or Glenn Cook, Coach of the UK Cheerleaders, Administration Building, University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky 40506-0032 or telephone 606-257-8927.
