Saltwell News

By Mrs. Fred Hollar

Around 20 ladies of the Saltwell United Methodist Women group prepared lunch and brought it to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Fryman on Saturday for a get together and time of fellowship. Mr. and Mrs. Fryman have been confined to their home for several months because of his illness. Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fryman of Morehead also visited them on Saturday night.

Dennis and Wes Livingston spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Alberta Snapp. Our community extends sympathy to the family of Paul W. Livingston who passed away Monday morning at St. Joseph Hospital, after a long illness. Paul was born and reared in this county and spent much of his life here and has many friends and family who regret his passing. Rev. Earl Pennington conducted the funeral at Whaley-McCarthy Funeral Home on Wednesday morning and burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Miss Suzanne Kenney of Lexington visited Mrs. Jean Mattox on Saturday. Rev. James Gaunce and Jerry Watkins visited Johnny Tucker at St. Francis Hospital in Covington. He is quite ill at this writing.

Fred Hollar entered Harrison Memorial Hospital on Thursday morning after being ill at his home. He was placed in I.C.U. Care for a couple of days but was able to return home Sunday afternoon. He had many visitors during his stay and on returning home.

Mrs. Gladys Kenney and Myrtil Hollar visited Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fryman of Paris on Sunday afternoon and stayed by far a short visit with Fred Hollar and family enroute home.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Storey enjoyed ice cream and cake with Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Storey and family of Lexington on Sunday afternoon honoring his birthday.

Rev. and Mrs. Albert Hughes enjoyed a picnic with their children Cathie and Wesley at Blue Licks Park on Friday evening.

Mr. Leonard Morris passed away Friday morning here he had been patient at Nicholas County Hospital after a lengthy illness. The funeral was conducted at Whaley-McCarthy Funeral Home on Monday evening by Rev. Darrell Stovens and Rev. James Gaunce. Burial was in Republican Cemetery. Our community extends sympathy to his family.

Word was received on Saturday of the death of Mrs. Lora Snapp Naoker who passed away at Good Samaritan Hospital. She was the daughter of the late One and Hattie Snapp and will be buried in Arkansas City, Missouri.

Mrs. Marjorie Fryman and Mrs. Phyllis Brady enjoyed the revival service on Friday night at the Gimarch Methodist Church, Cynthiana, with Rev. Terry Beckett, evangelist.

Mrs. Phyllis Brady and Mrs. Doris Doyle enjoyed the Gospel Sing at Cynthiana Baptist Church on Saturday night featuring the "Waymakers" and many others. This was an American Cancer Society benefit.

Mrs. Bobby Brady attended the funeral of Mrs. Ledyth Browning at Drake Funeral Home, Cynthiana, on Sunday afternoon.

Sunnyside Homemakers met April 20 to discuss buffet dinner and read

Sunnyside Homemakers dinava. She showed us a stool she'd covered with macrame cord on top and also around sides and also a folk art bag given by Ruth Ishmael, "Telling The Easter Story - Eyesiveness". She also read an Easter poem and a prayer. Scripture was Luke 24:1-11. Six members answered roll call by naming the nicest city we'd ever visited. Eleanor Bramel read minutes of the April meeting. Some of the announcements were our county annual meeting this Thursday night and the International Buffet is May 3 at the Christian Church. Supper is 4:00. The country is Sean. May 18.
