CYNTHIANA — The Lady Jackets maneuvered their way to a narrow win over the Harrison County Fillies on Friday night in Cynthiana, Ky.

It was difficult to tell who would emerge from the Harrison County home court victory, despite some tight defense and good shooting techniques exhibited by the Jackets squad throughout the game.

The shooting began with Lady Jacket Kim Denkins at 5:16 in the first as she buried the ball for two points for a score of 11-0.

The shooting continued with Denkins scoring again at 5:30. The score was 11-0.

Denkins had a difficult time guarding the Fillies' guard Dorothy Boyers. Boyers, who is much larger than Denkins in body size, would rack up points for the Fillies by standing under the basket and looking in the bulls.

Denkins was busy guarding Boyers at 7:05 in the second, keeping her at bay defensively and offensively and working the ball into a three-pointer at 7:25.

The shooting continued with Denkins scoring again at 7:40. The score was 11-0.

TOLLESBORO — The Jackets lost a devastating blow two games into the Class A Regional Tour on Friday night when the Tollesboro Wildcats overcame the Jackets.

The Jackets looked like they would overcome the Wildcats at the beginning of the third after a 29-20 margin.

Bradley Brown scored three from mid-court at 2:16 to try and help the Jackets break the Wildcats' 82-58 lead, but Howell's intense offensive play had the margin to 82-60 at 2:13.

Howell's Wildcats Ruggles and Sapp foul out negatively at 4:42 and 4:52 on the bench may have helped to lessen the street wise Jackets, and shrunk the Wildcats' lead to 84-60 at game's end.
