Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Morris
Morris weds Crawford

Rebecca Crawford and Leonard Morris III were united in marriage in a Christmas scene wedding of red and white by the Rev. Richard Gardner. The bride is the daughter of Julian and Nancy Crawford. The groom is the son of Leonard, Jr. and Roberta Morris. The bride was given in marriage by her father, she wore a dress and carried a bouquet of red and white carnations. The bridesmaid was sister of the bride, Patricia Crawford and aunt of the bride, Lucy Perkins, both dress in red and white and carrying two long stem red and white carnations. The flower girl was cousin of the bride Courtney Perkins, dressed in red and white and carrying a red bouquet. The groom and bestman Victor Watkins, friend of the groom, dress in suits. The groomsmen were brothers of the groom, Adam and Mike Morris. The ring bearer was Joey Perkins, cousin of the bride, who wore a dress suit and carried a white lace pillow with red and white ribbons also made by the bride's aunt, Bonnie Mitchell. The guest book was attended by the brides cousin Kelly Crawford. Guests were greeted at the door by Tara Estes, cousin of the bride.
