

Looking Back @ Nicholas.....

Continued from 3
 Southside Lady Greyhound, 60-6.
 A jury returned a verdict of guilty against David Huffman on felony charges of tampering with evidence and recommended a one year sentence. However, jurors also suggested that in sentencing, Circuit Judge Robert McGinnis invoke leniency in the judgment.

BORN: Tiffany Renee Johnson, October 19; Louis Wayne Farrow, October 22.
MARRIED: Katherine Lynn Moore and Billy G. Rainey, August 29.
DIED: Willard Spencer, October 8.

November

Thursday, December 2, 1992
 School Board incumbent David Smoot retained his seat by three votes over former School Superintendent Don Elder in the tightest election race in Nicholas County.
 Well over 22 representatives of the Nicholas County School system boarded buses last Wednesday to participate in the annual Red Ribbon Day in Frankfort.
 In a dramatic upswing in voter turnout this year, the democratic state which chose republicans in the past 12 years went with the majority again this year, this time following party suit with Bill Clinton and Al Gore.
BORN: Whitney Marrie

Keeping You In Touch
THE CARLISLE MERCURY
289-2464

MORRIS, October 20.
MARRIED: Lisa Dawn Earlywine and Christopher Todd Pickett, September 19.
DIED: Arminette Ewell Clinkenshard, November 2; John Hester Grimes, October 25.
BORN: Jane Letcher Becker, October 27; William E. Hostetler, October 29; Chester Ray Mattox, October 17; Lucas Taylor Amerine, October 26; P. Clay Hood Fryman, October 28.

Thursday, November 12, 1992
 Gladys Shroat and Julie Metzger, Co-Chairpersons of the Carlisle-Nicholas County Tourism Inc. presented Anna Lee Smith with her first place trophy and ribbon on winning the Bicentennial Quilt Show. Ella Biehn's quilt was runner-up in the show. The quilt show had 82 quilts and over 100 visitors to the show.

A former Nicholas County High School teacher, whose teaching certificate was revoked last October amid allegations of "immoral conduct", has filed a legal suit against the Education Professional Standards Board which made the decision, to revoke his status as a Kentucky school teacher.
 Mayor Frankie Hughes broke a tie vote by City Council members to continue discussion of extending sewer line hook ups to residents of Lake Carnico. At the regular November meeting council discussed the proposal made by the Carnico sanitation district committee for the extension of city sewer lines to the Lake Carnico area.
DIED: M. Kathryn Hanley, October 21.

Thursday, November 10, 1992
 Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bowles celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, November 10, with their family. Mr. and Mrs. Bowles were married November 10, 1934.

Until overruled by a "higher" authority, the Nicholas County Site Based Management Council has pushed on, passing a motion which would not accept eighth grade credits and will require students to fulfill three math courses in the high school to graduate. The motion will affect students in the 1993-94 school year, according to the motion.
 From 55-mile-per-hour winds to snow accumulation, weather last week in Nicholas County took a nose dive from the warmer, calmer fall temperatures people enjoyed a few weeks ago.

DIED: Christine Stone, November 14; Wilma Alice McFee Jolly, November 13; Tom Clark, November 16; Anna Marie Jefferson, November 15.

Thursday, November 26, 1992
 The restaurant and lounge known, infamously in the past year, as the 19th Hole Carnico, will begin reopening on Friday night. Bob Banta, owner and manager of Carnico Quick Stop and Lakeside Restaurant and Bar across US 68, and Tom Gerardo, former chef for the 19th Hole, have waded through the mass of details on leasing arrangements with owner Carl Abel to run and manage the country club, according to Banta.
 Fire erupted on board a TTI train engine headed to Carlisle Monday night, the result of a broken diesel line. The latest and possibly most eagerly awaited new business to open this year, had its unofficial grand opening quietly. Just a small sign at the edge of the road, saying "open", if there is anything that defines the new Chevron Food Mart best is space.

MARRIED: Janice White and Ed Johnson, October 30.

Tom Clark, November 16; Ralph Wayne Taylor, November 20.

December

Thursday, December 3, 1992
 Last Tuesday morning, early risers were greeted with a half-welcome sight - snow. Amid predictions of flurries, sometimes heavy, a large portion of central Kentucky found itself suddenly blanketed in a half inch of snow. The sudden fall prompted numerous school closings in the area, including Nicholas County.

Nicholas County Firefighters managed to save most of least Groves family home during an early Tuesday morning blaze, despite unexpected snowfall through the late night hours.
 The Nicholas County FFA Chapter attended the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri the week of November 10-15. Those attending were Eddie Tinch, Daniel Flora, Bradley Small, Danny Barnett, Mike Hill, Eric House, and advisor, Doug Bechman.

DIED: Bruce Jackson, November 30.

Thursday, December 10, 1992
 Susan Coldiron, a senior at Nicholas County High School was crowned Snow Queen by Grand Marshall Dr. Allen Hannon Saturday night at the Lions Club annual Christmas Parade. Susan was also selected Snow Flake four years ago when she was in the eighth grade. Jennifer Caswell, an eighth grade student at Nicholas County Elementary School was crowned Snow Flake by last year's Snow Queen Hope Coker.

With Kentucky's Bicentennial celebration drawing to a close at the end of the month, supporters and members and service providers to Tourism Inc. were honored by its co-chairs, Gladys Shroat and Julie Metzger, in a special open house presentation Sunday afternoon.

The Nicholas County Elementary School Site Based Council interviewed and selected candidates to be recommended to Nicholas County Superintendent Cobert Gilbert for aides for K-1. The council selected Mary Jo McGard, Jane Ellen Grimes, Patty Evans, and Danita Harmon.

DIED: Stella Mae Zachary Walker, December 4; Elmer V. Tipton, December 7.

Thursday, December 17, 1992
 More than anything else, the Lady Jackets proved they are not a one player team. That much was evident when the final seconds of the fourth quarter expired and the Lady Jackets had defeated number one Clay County, 55-44.

"There needs to be a traffic light at the intersection of Old Paris Road and Main Street" was the message State Representative Jim LaMater sent to the Secretary of Transportation, according to Carlisle Mayor Frankie Hughes at the regular meeting of the Carlisle City Council Monday night.

Nicholas County Superintendent Cobert Gilbert pledged he would not raise tax to build a new school to a group of concerned citizens Monday night at the regular school board meeting.

BORN: Andrew Colin Sexx, October 14.
MARRIED: Leslie McAlister Newman and John Edward Peters, October 5.
DIED: Linda Sue Darrell, December 10; Amelia King Buckley, December 13.

Thursday, December 24, 1992
 Nicholas County Boys Varsity Cheerleaders were surprised with a trophy presented from sponsor Shellie Coldiron during the Mason County game for the Regional Cheerleaders of American competition and received a special rating and qualified to go on to the national competition in Orlando, Florida. Changes in the Public Service Commission's tariff regulations continued to cause problems for the Nicholas County Water District over the amount of difference new customers were being charged to tap on to lines versus what longtime users had to pay.

BORN: Aaron Patrick Pope, November 11.
DIED: Earl H. Flack, December 21.

Thursday, December 31, 1992
 The White Christmas which descended unexpectedly on east central Kentucky Christmas Day was hardly what anyone would term their dream. In fact, judging from reports from emergency road crews and local authorities about the day, for several the day turned into a driver's nightmare.

Carlisle City Council and the members of the Nicholas County Water District reached a point of compromise last Wednesday night, though the Council made it clear that the controversy over the Myres water line extension will remain a wedge between both groups until the district makes good on its obligation.

The Russellville Lady Panthers moved ahead by one early in the fourth quarter in an 8-0 run on the boards to rattle the Lady Jackets in the first round of the Lady Invitational of the South basketball tournament. Russellville, ranked 13th in the pre-season, finally fell back for good as the Lady Jackets moved to the second round with a 46-41 victory.

DIED: Donald H. Stone, December 27.

Stop at CROSSROAD Chevron Food Mart for our HIT THE ROAD SPECIALS

- .79¢ Cheeseburgers
- .89¢ Vegetable Soup
- ALE-8 6 pack — $1.99
- Check Our Beer Prices!!!

It's the one stop that will keep you going. At CROSSROAD Chevron Food Mart you can fill-up with quality Chevron gasoline for your car, and great snacks and beverages for yourself. Be sure to stop in today, during this week's Hit the Road Special

CHEVRON
Main St., Carlisle — 289-6118

CHEVRON
Main St., Carlisle — 289-6118

If You're Looking For High Performance, We've Got Your Number.

What's in a number? When it's 93 Octane Chevron Supreme gasoline, it means you've got Chevron quality at its best. Our highest octane and the powerful cleansing additive Techrolinc®, give you the extra boost to help stop embarrassing knocking, pinging and hesitation. Pushing your car to perform at its peak.

So stop in and fill-up with 93 Octane Chevron Supreme. It's performance you can count on.

Tuesday Customer Appreciation Day

CHEVRON
Main St., Carlisle — 289-6118

CHEVRON
Main St., Carlisle — 289-6118