Lady Jackets' thrashed Paris in Monday's 62-45 battle

By Rebecca Mullins
Of The Carlisle Mercury Staff

CARLISLE - The Nicholas County Lady Jackets proved to the Paris Lady Hounds that the Jackets' win the first night over Paris in the Class A Regional Tournament wasn't a fluke.

"The second half, we played good defense. We got the ball to Kim and got the good shots," Kenney said. "We showed that we have good shooters. We showed our strength."

The team blasted the Hounds off the court for a final score of 62-45 which seemed like a battle of revenge for the Paris Lady Hounds.

Paris, with its 11-5 record, only got the lead over the Jackets once in the game the Lady Hounds so hoped to win to avenge the regional loss.

That one time was at 6:13 in the second, due to two free-throw points by Lady Hound Katie Shriver. Before and after that the Hounds struggled to try and overcome the Lady Jackets.

Christie Hatton dominated the first quarter of the battle, never yielding to the to the tugs on her jersey and body presses of defensive Lady Hound Katie Shriver. Hatton scored eight points in the first 5:30 minutes of play.

What Hatton didn't so in the first Kim Denkins and Nikki Smoot did. Smoot hit a two-pointer that got the Lady Jackets' score rolling and finished out her offensive role in the first with three free-throw points. Denkins, who scored a hit at 1:19 and scored two from the charity strips at 1:10 brought the Jackets to the top of the 17-14 score with a short jumper at the end of the first.

In the second quarter, the point margin narrowed to one point after Kim Denkins fouled Shriver at 6:13. Shriver brought the same to the Hounds favor (20-19) until Denkins corrected her mistake with a perfect layup at 3:50.

Lady Jacket Tara George then brought the score up to 23-20 for the Jackets at 2:47 with a smooth hit.

At this point, the Lady Hounds had called a timeout to plan their attack.

The Lady Jackets had concerned themselves with other things; Tara George was slightly injured after being slammed into by Lady Hound Rowena Crooks. She nevertheless bounced back into play in the third.

Denkins rounded out the second with two free-throw points and a score on a layup at :34 for a 27-22 lead.

In the third, the Lady Jackets put zone defense on the Hounds, giving Denkins the chance to hit a short jumper at 7:20 as well as the chance to steal the ball from Lady Hound Lisa McCarty. Denkins passed the ball to Hatton. A two was scored at 5:40 and the score rose to 31-24.

Denkins blocked one of several of Crooks' inside shots at 5:33 and stole the ball from her, running into the paint and scoring a two-pointer.

The Jackets' zone defense continued, and McCarty lost the ball to Smoot at 4:47. The ball was sent into a long pass to Michella Hopkins who brought it up for a hit and a strong 35-26 margin was set in the Lady Jackets' favor.

While Smoot and Hatton blinded Lady Hound Megan May with defense at 4:01, Denkins drove to the basket and scored a hit. Smoot then drove the ball home with a layup at 2:41.

In the fourth, Hopkins smoothly bumped the ball out of Katie Shriver's hands, ran it down the court and scored a layup at 6:53 to bring the score to 45-34. Hopkins was fouled by Shriver at that time, and scored another point from the charity line as a result.

The next two-pointer was scored by Denkins. She was fouled while making the hit, however, and hurt her already weak leg in the process. Denkins left the game at 1:06 with a memorable 20 points under her belt.

The final point in the Lady Jackets' 62-45 win was scored through a long jumper by Linville with :07 remaining on the clock.

Scoring and stats: Christie Hatton, 12 points, two steals, five assists, 10 rebounds, three fouls; Nikki Smoot, eight points, four rebounds, two steals, four assists, three fouls;

Kim Denkins, 20 points, seven rebounds, six steals, three assists, three fouls; Renee Linville, 10 points, one rebound, one steal, four fouls; Elizabeth Schanding, four rebounds, four assists; Michella Hopkins, seven points, five rebounds, one steal, two assists, two fouls; Tawnya Livingood, one rebound; Jennifer Willoughby, one rebound, one assist, one foul; Alicia Sibert, one point; Tara George, four points, one rebound, one foul.

Kayo Takamura and Tara George finished out the game with three free-throws between the two of them. The game ended notably 76-34.

Scoring and stats: Renee Linville, two points; Elizabeth Schanding, eight points; Nikki Smoot, 10 points; Christie Hatton, 15 points; Alicia Sibert, six points; Melanie Jones, two points; Tara George, five points; Tawnya Livingood, six points; Michella Hopkins, 15 points; Tina Fryman, three points; Kayo Takamura, two points; Jennifer Willoughby, two points.

At 2:04, Melanie Jones hit a layup followed by one of Tara George's two-pointers at 1:30.

Girl Scouts are selling cookies

It's Girl Scout cookie time. When you buy Girl Scout cookies you get much more than a delicious treat. You get the satisfaction of knowing you're giving girls their first lesson in business. And they love it.

Girls will be taking order, door to door, until January 31, 1993. Booth sales will be conducted in front of the Carlisle IGA February 26-28, March 5-7, and March 12-14.

Remember, the girl is first in Girl Scouting.

St. Patrick

and more of Hatton's sure shots blew the lead up to 12 points for a 32-20 match by the half.

By the end of the third, the score had grown to 54-26, an incredible 30-point margin, and the Lady Jackets were still gaining speed.

In the fourth, the junior varsity Lady Jackets really showed their ability to the watchful Nicholas County crowd. The junior squad scored 20 of the team's 75 points by the end of the game.

Michella Hopkins scored two with a layup at 7:50 in the fourth for a score of 56-26. That piece of work was followed at 7:30 with a short jumper good for two by Jennifer Willoughby.

All of the points scored by both teams from 5:17 to 4:22 in the fourth were from the charity line.

Alicia Sibert scored two of her five points at 4:53 and 4:17 in the fourth with free-throws.

Two more points were drawn from a short jumper made by Sibert at 4:15 right before she was fouled. By 3:20, the score had risen to 67-33.
