Church Corner

The following is an article written by a local church official, and does not necessarily reflect the opinions held by The Courier News or its staff.

By Rev. Kevin Thomas First Baptist Church. A few years ago on a television advertising campaign, a popular band of hostesses posed the question, "How's your love life?" The ad suggested that the quality of one's love life is directly related to the brand of soda we use to refresh our thirst.

Trusty named to Lions Club All-state band

Mike Trusty from the Nicholas County High School Band has been selected to participate in 1993 Kentucky All-State Bands. The band will be assembled to participate in the International Lions Club Convention and Parade to be held in Minneapolis, Minnesota during the period of July 5-9, 1993.

The highlight of the trip will be the participation in the Lions International Convention parade, one of the largest parades in the world composed of entries from throughout the free world. In addition to marching in the parade the band will perform a concert for the Kentucky delegation.
