Your Health is a Matter We Take Personally.

Johnson Mathers Health Care is committed to providing the best possible quality health care to all its patients from Nicholas, Bourbon, Fleming, Bath, Robertson, and Harrison County. And that means more to us than just providing the latest technology. It even means more than employing a highly trained staff of medical professionals.

It also means providing quality personal care to our patients. That is why we make every effort to talk with you after your discharge - to make sure the care you received was the best possible. We also invite your suggestions about how our services can be expanded to better meet your needs.

We are always looking for ways to enhance our quality medical care, little things that make your stay with us comfortable and pleasant. From the moment you register until after your discharge, your health and well-being is our first priority.
