MERCURY VAPOURS

Reprinted from Thursday, March 15, 1979 The morning mail server falls... This seal company must use the shotgun approach. Their appeal may hit a customer somewhere within their mailing area.

Letter To The Editor Editor The article written by Rebecca Mullins in the March 11, 1993 edition of The Carlisle Mercury regarding the nature of the rashes at Nicholas County Elementary School is abominable. It is comprised of several half truths and innuendos.

Commentary

Regular maintenance of these devices provides you with a first line defense in case of a fire. A fire extinguisher for several placed in a strategic position can often be a lifesaver. Never place extinguishers too near an obvious heat source such as a cooking stove, because you don't want to have to fight the fire to get to it.

MERCURY MEMORIES

5 Years Ago Thursday, March 17, 1988 The Nicholas County Industrial Authority scheduled an open house, Wednesday morning, March 16. The open house was scheduled to celebrate the initial operation of Magic Images, Inc.
