Elect
Charles K. Watkins
Nicholas County Judge-Executive
On May 25th, Nicholas County Voters will select from eleven choices the next County Judge-Executive for a five-year term.

These next five years will challenge the position Nicholas County has in relation to our neighboring counties and Central Kentucky.

In the past thirty days, we have experienced a crisis. 107 people I understand not on the payroll. In Montgomery County, this crisis is not so severe due to Cliff Stultz and his group having a plan and announcing three new industries this past year to provide employment opportunities.

In the past five years, it is difficult to list the actual accomplishments of our county court. There has been very little effort to stabilize our County and move it forward. Those with innovative ideas have been challenged until at the present time people prefer not to be humiliated in court meetings and stay away.

This is not intended to criticize Judge Smoot or any individual. I have watched him in court meetings sweat as he attempted to provide leadership to the court. This court has failed to act on the important issues that effect Nicholas County. Their experience is reflected by their record.

From this type of leadership, other crises will begin to unfold. After the election, probably a 25% increase in water users rates and more to come.

Do You Really Have A Choice?

We can't go on the experience and attitudes that establish our record in the past. Our court meetings must resemble that of any active and progressive business. We must be alive, with a pulse, a heart for Nicholas County, and a mind directed to the benefit of all.

Then we won't have to tell people what we do for them; they will recognize it. Actions speak louder than words.

Your choice is to pull lever one and elect the number one candidate for the position. Experienced, capable, and character ready to do the job, yet humble enough to hear your pleas and use you to make us all successful.

Please come out and vote. It is important. Tomorrow could be a brighter day.

Elect

Community Commitment For 126 Years....
The Carlisle Mercury

Murrell named Governor's Scholar

Kevin Murrell, 18-year-old son of James Allen and Sharon Murrell of Carlisle, has been named as a Governor's Scholar for 1993. Kevin is a senior at Nicholas County High School and attends the KY TECH - Harrison Center as a student in the Machine Technology program under instructor Marion "Buddy" Baldwin. His part-time machine shop experience coupled with exemplary performance in vocational and academic areas helped Kevin earn this prestigious award. The Governor's Scholarship will provide a tuition free opportunity to develop skills as a CNC Machine Programmer/Operator at the KY TECH - Central State Vocational Technical School campus during the coming school year.

Kevin hopes to turn his part-time and summer employment at Apex Enterprises of Paris into a lucrative full-time position as a CNC lathe and milling machine operator upon graduation from the Central SVTS in Lexington. Besides the fun of working, Kevin also enjoys attending car shows and rebuilding classic automotive engines. His current project involves renovating a Chevy "409". He also aspires to become a volunteer fire fighter with the Nicholas County Rescue Squad.

Kevin was encouraged to apply for the Governor's Scholarship by his uncle, Delmus Murrell, and had this to say when questioned about his vocational experiences. "I have enjoyed the opportunity for the hands-on experiences at the Harrison Center. I encourage all students to consider vocational education as part of their high school experiences."

SBDM meets, approves proposals

Mrs. Mallory and Mrs. Hilton are to provide KERA's grading checklist to the Council within one week; Primary Report card after deleting Oral Reading and changing "No mark indicates satisfactory" to "√ indicates satisfactory"; 1993-94 Transformation Plan with the option fo making revisions to stay within state guidelines; Seventh and eighth grade teachers to form a committee to decide whether to have a top group in Math for new school year and for the remaining subjects to be mixed heterogeneously; Primary teams to place primary students in classes for the new school year. Grades 4-8 teachers will make class lists and will submit to Mr. Gerald Hammons for grouping for new school year.
