Hospital offers disposal program

It is a reality in the world today that there are certain very dangerous diseases that can be spread through contact with blood and certain body fluids. At Bourbon General Hospital we have policies for handling and disposal of contaminated needles and other contaminated materials that meet or exceed stringent state and federal regulations. Bourbon General Hospital is concerned about protecting our community and our environment. We are aware that there are people who must give injections at home and we are concerned that these needles and syringes may not be disposed of properly. Recently, one of our employees suggested that the hospital start a program to allow for safe disposal of needles that are used by persons in our community.

Small puncture-resistant "sharps containers" may be picked up free of charge Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. at Bourbon General Hospital in Materials Management Department. When the containers are approximately three-fourths full, they should be closed tightly and brought to our Emergency Room Department at any time.

We do ask that the outside of the container be clean when brought in. Please do not put unnecessary trash in them since we do pay per pound to have contaminated waste transported to an approved incinerator for proper disposal. If you have any questions about this program, please contact Annette Calvert, RN, at Bourbon General Hospital, 987-3600.

Veterans' booklet available

One of the federal government's all-time best-selling publications, "Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents," has been revised with the latest changes in law for 1993 and is now available from the U.S. Government Printing Office.

Published by the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), the 105-page handbook describes federal benefits for veterans and dependents, such as medial care, education, disability compensation, pension, life insurance, home loan guaranty, vocational rehabilitation and burial assistance. It also explains requirements for eligibility and outlines claims procedures.

Addresses and phone numbers of all VA offices, medical centers, national cemeteries, Vietnam veterans counseling centers and other VA facilities are listed by state. In addition, a toll-free number, 1-800-827-1000, is listed for the first time to connect callers to the nearest benefits counselor.

The handbook also includes special sections on veterans benefits administered by other federal agencies.

"Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents" ranks third in total sales of publications by the U.S. Government Printing Office. Including the 1992 edition, some 2,584,000 have been sold through September 1992.

For copies, request GPO stock number 051-000-00-200-8 from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402, and enclose a check or money order for $3.25 per copy. To order with VISA or Mastercard, phone (202) 783-3238.

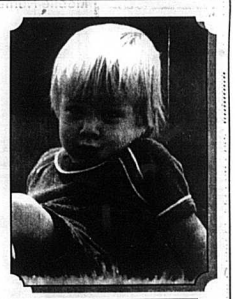
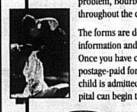
We Can't Even Put A BAND-AID On Your Child Without Your Signature.



Most parents don't realize that hospital emergency rooms can not initiate treatment of children under the age of 18 without parental consent unless the situation is life threatening. To help remedy the problem, Bourbon General Hospital is distributing parental consent forms throughout the county — to schools, to le...l industries, and as a newspaper insert.



The forms are designed to provide a basic medical history of each child, insurance information and a contact person if the child is admitted to our Emergency Room. Once you have completed and signed the information on the card, just drop the postage-paid form in the mail to the hospital. Parents are always contacted when a child is admitted, but with this information and the parent's signed consent the hospital can begin treatment immediately — instead of having to wait for what might be hours.
This program is just one of the many ways that Bourbon General Hospital is providing outstanding service to our community. Look for your parental consent form in next week's paper, or feel free to stop by our hospital lobby and pick one up.
For more information call 987-3600.
