Moorefield Homemakers meet Nov. 4

The Moorefield Homemakers are guests of Margie H. Wilson at the home of Lois Hamm on November 4. The president, Alma Curtis, called the meeting to order. Lois Hamm gave the Devotional ending with a poem "Priority." The roll was answered by 12 members and one guest, Mrs. Gibson, naming one of our greatest blessings. The minutes were read and approved. We give $1 per member for the Ovarian Cancer Fund. Also we are donating $25 to Eastern State Hospital to be used at Christmas. Alma Curtis and Elizabeth Ellington attended a Home Furnishings Workshop at the Fayette Extension Office in Lexington on November 4. Our lesson this month was given by Lorry Jean Clark on "bedroom." Some points discussed were the nutritional value of fish, we should eat it two or three times a week, and it's a good source of vitamins. She told about the twinkle fish and shellfish. The hostess served delicious salad. Reception was led by Frances House.

Marie 259 to meet

Church Corner

The following is an article written by a local church official, and does not necessarily reflect the views or opinions held by The Courier Mercury or Park Communications, Inc.

By Rev. Robert E. Allen
Pastor, Saltwell and Rose Hill United Methodist Churches
Sitting in my study and it came to my mind that this was my week to write for the Courier Mercury. As I was thinking about what to write I thought about THANKSGIVING and being thankful for what we find ourselves what are some of the things that we have to be thankful for. There are many things that I could mention but I would like for you to consider with me some things We Should Be Thankful For.

Thanksgiving is a time of the year set aside for us to count our blessings, fresh and to give thanks. Everyday should be Thanksgiving for us to thank Him and praise Him and to take life one day at a time.

We Should Be Thankful For the Plan of Salvation.
It is the gift of God. It is by faith in Him. It is offered to all. We should be Thankful For the Bible.

It is inspired by God. It is a light unto our feet and a light to our pathway. It is our strength.

We Should Be Thankful For the Church.
We go to live it. We are to support it, with our presence, with our tithes and offerings, and we are to defend it.

We Should Be Thankful For the Servant of the Lord.
He has a message from the Lord. He will instruct us right and will correct us when we are wrong.

We Should Be Thankful For His Daily Blessings.
They are new every morning. They are innumerable. Count your own blessings and it will surprise you what the Lord has done. They are our needs for each day.

We Should Be Thankful For Our Precious Holy Spirit.
He convicts us and guides us into all truth. He comforts in time of sorrow.

We Should Be Thankful For His Faithfulness.
His promise of spiritual and his promise to return. This Thanksgiving Day and every day let us praise to offer gift and give thanks and praise to the giver of every good and perfect gift that comes down from the Father above.
