CARLISLE - During Christmas, it's easy to get involved in buying gifts for family members, but it's not so easy to get involved in buying gifts for family members who are in need. The true spirit of the season is to help those in need.

One business in Carlisle is taking the time to remember the Christmas Angel Tree, which will help buy less fortunate Nicholas County children Christmas presents.

The First National Bank of Carlisle has an ongoing project, which will help buy less fortunate Nicholas County children Christmas presents.

Deliveries will be made December 2-23. Batches also said community response has been tremendous to date.

Little Leaguers got a chance to smile for the camera as all teams, as well as cheerleaders, lined up early Saturday morning for formal portrait pictures. Little League teams play on Saturdays.

Sunnyside Homemakers meet November 16

Sunnyside Homemakers met on Tuesday, November 16, 1993 at the extension office. Four regular members, a new member, Carol Mann, and our guest, Melba Burch, were seated with reciting a favorite Bible verse. Lavinia McFarland read the 100th Psalm, Phyllis Brady read two poems, "Count Your Blessings" and "We Give Thanks, Kinsmen Brantel read "All Things Bright and Beautiful" followed by a prayer by Phyllis. Each told some of the things they are thankful for.

Our club agreed to pay dues for everyone in their families, as our parents in the evening hours if they have to work.
