Church Corner

The following are articles by a local church official, and does not necessarily reflect the views or opinions held by the Board of Christian Communications, Inc.
By Rev. Darrell Heston, Pastor, Assembly of God Church.

A miracle has just taken place in the area of the church. The church was closed for several weeks because of a fire that destroyed the building. The church was closed for several weeks because of a fire that destroyed the building.

Each evening, we hear on the news and read in the papers of bad things happening. Hitmen, murders, rapes, and violence fill our news and printed pages.

Taylor, J.W. Ballard, Bob Lane and Brenda Anderson. We considered KERA sharing a celebration and a valuable lesson.

As well, and as professional as this was, it would show the people who still harbor doubts concerning whether KERA would be viable or not that KERA is here to stay.

Matthew 5:5 says "Blessed are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth." Being mindful of that great promise, it is always with reluctance that I talk about what we may have done in office. (Hopefully, the good outweighs the bad.)

Where as the city of Forget Me Not by Chapter Twelve of the Disabled American Veterans shall take place during the hours of nine o'clock until two o'clock on the same said day of October 9, 1993.

Atkinson Reunion held

The Atkinson Reunion was held at Blue Lick State Park on September 26. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Whaley of Greensboro, North Carolina traveled the farthest distance. The eldest couple was Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Johns of Louisville.

Those attending were: Jerry and Curt Powers, Je Ann and Bob Graham, Wilma and Jimmy Whaley, Kathy and Bob, Robin and Dwight Sontag, Neil and Cam, Herb and Crisler, Lou Ann and David, Betty and Malby, New Chick and Rebecca, Judy Ruth and John, and Mrs. Virginia Collinsworth and Randy, all of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. S.C. Smith.

Due to an error on the list submitted in this publication, on the September 20 Edition of The Casey Mirror, Whitey and Marie Morris was mistakenly identified as the daughter of William Morris. She is the daughter of Leonard Morris III and Rebecca Morris.
