mornings east which means we will have sunrise before dawn in order to breakfast and make trucks to Sky View Farm in the eastern part of the county.
Of course at this time one just hopes the weather will continue its beautiful trend. Maybe with care and luck I can take a view for that east morning.
that is, Monday we were reminded with Mayor Bill Fleming about the one down in Fleming County that we both attended outside a motorcycle.
We didn't chase beyond, but we're fun.
Response to our plea to renew early has borne fruit to some extent. While we do appreciate getting your renewal early!
We've attended casts before many years ago, more than we like to have gone by years for the chance to see the Nicholas County High School Band in competition for the first time since 1988.

That was the year oldest daughter Carol was field marcher at NCHS, her senior year and it was quite an exciting time at the Bond household.
For many, maybe it doesn't necessarily mean, but to put it in perspective, having a child in the band is much like having a child playing on a sports team.
Almost every available moment has to be dedicated to practices and performance, just like following a sports team.
It takes a great deal of time.
At the band festival I got to see several people I don't have the opportunity to see regularly.

cations of meters and plans for the old water lines as Barker would start immediately.
Water board members started from a request from Curtinger regarding his employment by the water board as water district manager.
The Kirby said he felt the water district did not offer a manager at the present time.
If you cannot afford a manager, you really can't expect me to get up in the middle of the right and fix breaks. I went to Morehead three times last year and I won't be taking time off my job unless I'm going to be on the payroll to some extent. The other four people on this water board are going to have to make trips to the Public Service Commission," Curtinger said.
"Right now there is just not enough of a job for a secretary a meter reader and a manager, especially now that we are $30,000 into AQUA," Simons said.
