Martha and Daley Kennedy were Sunday dinner guests of Myrill and Mrs. Raymond Kennedy of Lexington.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Allen and guests Mr. and Mrs. Jim Unger were in Lexington on Monday to consult with Mrs. Allen's doctor. They were all Monday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hallar and enjoyed a time of singing and playing.

I have a correction to make in Saltwell News items last week. The pig roast and supper which was mentioned was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Mattos, instead of Phillip Mc-

Donald's. Sorry about that.

Friends and family of Mr. Otis R. Fryman who passed away Saturday morning at Nicholas County Hospital regret his passing and extend sympathy to those near him. He was a patient at Johnson Matthers Nursing Home for several years and had been a teacher at Saltwell School and was also principal of Headquarters Elementary School.

Mrs. Katrina Hallar and Alicia, Mrs. Laura Fryman, Mike and son Josh attended a Mary Kay party at Jamie Kenney's on Friday night.

Rev. Robert E. Allen
Pastor, Redwood and Rose Hill United Methodist Churches

Sometimes God's truth comes as quietly as the dew. When life is fair and sunny, it is there, sparkling and refreshing as it is, often goes unnoticed. In a desert, dew preserves life, yes, even in the "dry place of life," Christians depend on the Word of God to sustain them.

Or God's truth may come like a shower. Slowly drop by drop, it begins to rain. The tempo increases. Some of the drops roll down a windowsill or off a ducks back, but as more and more of them fall, they begin to soak into the parched ground.

Like rain not all truth is absorbed at first or ever but the Christian who is frequently absorbed with it will grow and mature.

As we look at Hoses we find that the prophecy can be likened to the day of trials and storms of the life of the Christian but here in the 6th verse we have after the storm.

A. The dew is a sign.

1. Thin or small kind of rain.
2. It is also an emblem of the divine grace of God.
3. GOD HIMSELF IS AS THE DEW.
4. He came first and talked with man. (Garden of Eden).
5. Then Jesus came.
6. Now the Holy Spirit is here.

1. To reprove the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment to me.

2. To guide us into all truth.
3. THE DEW COMES DOWN FROM ABOVE.
4. He came first and talked with man. (Garden of Eden).
5. Then Jesus came.
6. Now the Holy Spirit is here.

1. To reprove the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment to me.

2. To guide us into all truth.
3. THE DEW COMES DOWN FROM ABOVE.
4. He came first and talked with man. (Garden of Eden).
5. Then Jesus came.
6. Now the Holy Spirit is here.

Wills family holds reunion; many attend

The Wills Family reunion was held at the 4-H Camp at Carlisle, August 6, 1993 with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wills, Lexington, coordinators.

Mr. Landon Wills and his wife Irene Blake Wills, 813 Murray Street, Frankfort, Kentucky serve as the most interested descendant of the family. They collect information throughout the country and willingly share their findings.

Mrs. Nora Wills, Carlisle and Mrs. Amy Wills, Williamsport were the oldest members present. They will each celebrate their 95th birthday during the week of August 8, 1993.

Youngest member present was Brennan Wills, age four months, son of Bradford and Virginia Wills, Lexington and grandson of Carl and Elizabeth Tapp Wills also Lexington.

The severe heat of the past weeks had subsided making the weather great for family fellowship, and the sharing of excellent food. Group pictures were taken to be exhibited next year.

Descendants of a common ancestor: Frederick William Wills born 1742 in Albemarle County, Virginia, died 1795/1796 in Clark County, Kentucky and is buried there on Eaton Pike in Wills Family Graveyard. From the lines of William Wills,
