EKU grads invited to Bash

If ever a "Big Spring Bash" sounded enticing, it's after this cold, snowy winter.

And that's exactly what's planned for the 68 Eastern Kentucky University graduates residing in Nicholas County. They are invited to renew friendships and rekindle memories with former classmates from all across the country at Alumni Weekend, April 29 thru 30.

Special reunions are planned for the classes of 1924, 1929, 1934, 1939, 1944, 1949, 1954, 1964, and 1969, but all Eastern alumni and their families are invited.

"Alumni Weekend is a special time for the University community, and a memorable experience for returning graduates," said Larry Bailey, director of alumni affairs. "We trust a good number of our alumni will take this opportunity to come back home to Eastern for fun and fellowship."

Festivities begin at 1:30 p.m. Friday, April 29 with the dedication of the Funderburk Building, the new home of the state Department of Criminal Justice Training on the EKU campus. That evening, a faculty/alumni reception and alumni dinner are planned at Arlington.

The festivities continue on Saturday, April 30, beginning with class photos at 10:30 a.m., followed by a luncheon and class meetings at 11:30 a.m., all in the Keen Johnson Building. After an afternoon cruise on the Star of Lexington, activities resume on campus that evening, with the Alumni Awards Banquet at 7 p.m. in the Keen Johnson Ballroom.

At the banquet, several graduates will be honored with induction into the Hall of Distinguished Alumni, and the EKU National Alumni Association's Outstanding Alumnus for 1994 will be recognized.

Other events that may interest alumni: a special Archives Display, a show at the Hummel Planetarium, a student art exhibit, campus tours, and tours of White Hall and Fort Boonesborough.

For registration or additional information, call the EKU alumni affairs office, (606) 622-1260. In Kentucky, call toll free, 1-800-262-7493, ext. 1260.
