

Church Corner

By Father Michael J. Weglicki
Pastor, Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church
When a person has to complete a large task, the job may seem to be a little easier if it is broken down into small parts. The whole job might seem to be overwhelming, but the parts of the whole look more manageable. For example, working in a backyard might look like a big job if you look at the whole yard, such as cutting the grass, trimming and weeding the flower beds, the smaller jobs don't look as big. Eventually all the work is completed.

On one occasion Paul was speaking to a group of Catholics. They had just converted to the faith. He instructed them to put aside their old pagan ways of doing things. They were now to acquire a fresh, spiritual way of thinking. You must put on that horn of God's image, whose justice and holiness are new for them and not going to be easy. All their lives they were living in sin. Now they had to put on a "new person" in the same way that one would change clothes. What made it especially difficult was that their sins had taken hold of them, they became habits. Ingrained habits are hard to get rid of because they become part of a person. Since they are so much a part of a person, getting rid of a habit is painful, like there is in any type of separation.

The same message goes out to us. Everyone is called to be a new person and acquire a fresh spiritual way of thinking. Often people try. It usually comes in the form of a resolution, like the failure from the start. A person will try to do too much at once. This leads to discouragement, failure and giving up all together. Why not try to make a self-improvement plan by breaking it down into small parts? Let's say you want to work on patience. So instead of saying, "I'll be more patient," you look at situations where you are the least patient. Is it with a certain individual? Is it in a certain situation, like waiting in line? Do you have control over the situation that makes you impatient? One person control over the situation that makes you impatient? One person control over the situation that makes you impatient? One person control over the situation that makes you impatient?

Perhaps by working at one little fault at a time you achieve your goal. Overall you might find yourself becoming more patient. Your goal could have a snowball effect. While working on patience you could become kinder, less self-centered and more willing to help others. This all adds up to that new person and fresh spiritual way of thinking that Paul is speaking about to the Ephesians converts.

Many people belong to clubs and organizations that carry out projects by dividing them into smaller tasks and delegating them to its members. If everyone does their job the project is completed. The organization as a whole will have guidance and direction. This could be a good model to use. Remember the calling to put on a new self and acquire a fresh spiritual way of thinking. However, don't begin until you have a specific plan on how you are going to do it and ask for the help of God.

The Carle Mercury Leigh Stone Photo
Seth Sadler, teacher Sue Kirby, Andrea Hutchinson and Ashley Judd studied yeast, yeast cells, spiders and mushrooms with the stereoscope and a compound microscope in the science lab at NCHS during their College. It was the first time science was offered.

Dale seeks District 2 re-election

By Leigh Stone
OF THE CARLE MERCURY STAFF
CARLE, Ky. — Incumbent Nicholas County School Board member Jimmy Dale of District 2 will run for school board member again during the Nov. 8 general election.

Dale is employed in the purchasing department and is warehouse manager at McAlpin's Lexington. His wife, Charlene, is in data processing at Johnson-Mathers Health Care Inc. The Dale's reside at 1371 Lake Road.

Dale has resided in Nicholas County all his life and plans to stay here, he said.

Being on the board has had a disquieting moment but Dale is sure he wants to be there. "I'm sure there's a lot who wouldn't want a four year term on the board. I'm not at all ashamed of the decision I've made. I'd tuck my tail behind my legs and run."

He filed last Thursday, said Dale Monday afternoon.

At 5 p.m. on Monday, Nicholas County Clerk Doug Fryman said only one other candidate had filed for District 2, former board member Boogie Hall.

The filing deadline to be on the November ballot was 4 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 2, Fryman confirmed.

"I have two vested interests in serving on the board," Dale said mentioning his daughters, Kristi, 9, (to be a fourth grader this fall) and Brittan, 5 (who will be starting school). That's why Dale is running for the seat.

"After talking to many people in the county and in attending the board meetings I feel the majority of people in the county are not satisfied with the unanswered questions and lack of concern shown to the children of the system," Hall said.

Hall, a resident of 211 Elderberry Dr., served District 2 as a board member January 1990 to March 1993. She resigned her post a year early to run for Nicholas County Circuit Clerk.

Daphne Fryman was appointed by the state selection committee to fill the office until the next general election Nov. 8. Fryman was defeated by Jimmy Dale, who has served since January 1994.

Hall, a Nicholas County resident for 20 years, has two children currently in the Nicholas County School system. Her daughter, Sunshine Hall will be a senior in NCHS. Her son, John Robert Hall, will be in the seventh grade.

Hall's eldest two daughters, Heather and Andrea, are also NCHS graduates. Heather resides in St. Louis and was just graduated from Washington University and will enter medical school this fall. Andrea is a senior at the University of Hawaii.

Hall is in the county and in attending the board meetings I feel the majority of people in the county are not satisfied with the unanswered questions and lack of concern shown to the children of the system," Hall said.

Hall, a resident of 211 Elderberry Dr., served District 2 as a board member January 1990 to March 1993. She resigned her post a year early to run for Nicholas County Circuit Clerk.

Daphne Fryman was appointed by the state selection committee to fill the office until the next general election Nov. 8. Fryman was defeated by Jimmy Dale, who has served since January 1994.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

Work closer with site based decision making council.

OBITUARIES

CARTMILL
Edwin Morrow Cartmill, 74, of Dorsey Avenue, Carleville, husband of Mary Lou Soard Cartmill, died Tuesday, July 26, 1994, at the Nicholas County Hospital.

Hamilton and Mrs. Gladys Goff, both of Carleville; Mrs. Adeline Paulin, Stillwater, Oklahoma; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were 2 p.m. Friday, July 29, 1994, at Mother-Claudio Funeral Home, by Rev. Kevin Thomas and Rev. James Gannon. Burial was in the Carleville Cemetery.

Casketbearers were Henry Paters, Charles Crawford, Bob Anderson, Ed Mitchell, Woodie King and Billy Max Gannon.

Honorary bearers were Harry Gannon, Paul Trandway, Virgil Collinsworth, Eugene Toot, Bill Campbell, Gay Max, Raymond Hall, J.W. Crump, C.H. Dotts, Roy Flora, Terry Feaback and Hannon Chandler.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Bessie (Betty) Sorrell, Jr., Carleville; a grandson, Jeffrey Morrow Sorrell, Carleville; one brother, Roy Cartmill, Carleville; three sisters, Mrs. Oral Cartmill, Mrs. Gladys Goff, both of Carleville; Mrs. Adeline Paulin, Stillwater, Oklahoma; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were 2 p.m. Friday, July 29, 1994, at Mother-Claudio Funeral Home, by Rev. Kevin Thomas and Rev. James Gannon. Burial was in the Carleville Cemetery.

Casketbearers were Henry Paters, Charles Crawford, Bob Anderson, Ed Mitchell, Woodie King and Billy Max Gannon.

Honorary bearers were Harry Gannon, Paul Trandway, Virgil Collinsworth, Eugene Toot, Bill Campbell, Gay Max, Raymond Hall, J.W. Crump, C.H. Dotts, Roy Flora, Terry Feaback and Hannon Chandler.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Bessie (Betty) Sorrell, Jr., Carleville; a grandson, Jeffrey Morrow Sorrell, Carleville; one brother, Roy Cartmill, Carleville; three sisters, Mrs. Oral Cartmill, Mrs. Gladys Goff, both of Carleville; Mrs. Adeline Paulin, Stillwater, Oklahoma; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were 2 p.m. Friday, July 29, 1994, at Mother-Claudio Funeral Home, by Rev. Kevin Thomas and Rev. James Gannon. Burial was in the Carleville Cemetery.

Casketbearers were Henry Paters, Charles Crawford, Bob Anderson, Ed Mitchell, Woodie King and Billy Max Gannon.

Seniors show Bluegrass Game support

By Leigh Stone
OF THE CARLE MERCURY STAFF
LEXINGTON — Betty Barton, Mervyn Sams and Elizabeth Coywood were presented awards from the year's Bluegrass State Games.

Shirley Vice, director of the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street, congratulated the winners and praised the efforts of all the seniors who gave support.

Vice boarded the CATS bus for the Bluegrass Games Friday, July 29 were (r) Martha Florence, Elizabeth Caywood, winner of the physically challenged category, June Wilson, Mervyn Sams, Betty Barton, Betty Payne, Betty Fay and Ruth See. The ladies took off from the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street with C. J. Current, bus driver. Current said he transported players to the games since they started in 1965. Shirley Vice, not pictured, center, director was on hand to give the participants a congratulatory send-off.

Shirley Vice, director of the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street, congratulated the winners and praised the efforts of all the seniors who gave support.

Vice boarded the CATS bus for the Bluegrass Games Friday, July 29 were (r) Martha Florence, Elizabeth Caywood, winner of the physically challenged category, June Wilson, Mervyn Sams, Betty Barton, Betty Payne, Betty Fay and Ruth See. The ladies took off from the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street with C. J. Current, bus driver. Current said he transported players to the games since they started in 1965. Shirley Vice, not pictured, center, director was on hand to give the participants a congratulatory send-off.

Shirley Vice, director of the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street, congratulated the winners and praised the efforts of all the seniors who gave support.

Vice boarded the CATS bus for the Bluegrass Games Friday, July 29 were (r) Martha Florence, Elizabeth Caywood, winner of the physically challenged category, June Wilson, Mervyn Sams, Betty Barton, Betty Payne, Betty Fay and Ruth See. The ladies took off from the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street with C. J. Current, bus driver. Current said he transported players to the games since they started in 1965. Shirley Vice, not pictured, center, director was on hand to give the participants a congratulatory send-off.

Shirley Vice, director of the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street, congratulated the winners and praised the efforts of all the seniors who gave support.

Vice boarded the CATS bus for the Bluegrass Games Friday, July 29 were (r) Martha Florence, Elizabeth Caywood, winner of the physically challenged category, June Wilson, Mervyn Sams, Betty Barton, Betty Payne, Betty Fay and Ruth See. The ladies took off from the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street with C. J. Current, bus driver. Current said he transported players to the games since they started in 1965. Shirley Vice, not pictured, center, director was on hand to give the participants a congratulatory send-off.

Shirley Vice, director of the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street, congratulated the winners and praised the efforts of all the seniors who gave support.

Vice boarded the CATS bus for the Bluegrass Games Friday, July 29 were (r) Martha Florence, Elizabeth Caywood, winner of the physically challenged category, June Wilson, Mervyn Sams, Betty Barton, Betty Payne, Betty Fay and Ruth See. The ladies took off from the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street with C. J. Current, bus driver. Current said he transported players to the games since they started in 1965. Shirley Vice, not pictured, center, director was on hand to give the participants a congratulatory send-off.

Shirley Vice, director of the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street, congratulated the winners and praised the efforts of all the seniors who gave support.

Vice boarded the CATS bus for the Bluegrass Games Friday, July 29 were (r) Martha Florence, Elizabeth Caywood, winner of the physically challenged category, June Wilson, Mervyn Sams, Betty Barton, Betty Payne, Betty Fay and Ruth See. The ladies took off from the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street with C. J. Current, bus driver. Current said he transported players to the games since they started in 1965. Shirley Vice, not pictured, center, director was on hand to give the participants a congratulatory send-off.

Shirley Vice, director of the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center, Main Street, congratulated the winners and praised the efforts of all the seniors who gave support.

exhaust pro 10 MINUTE OIL CHANGE $14.95
LIFETIME WARRANTY MUFFLER $34.95
exhaust pro TRANSMISSION SPECIAL $34.95
exhaust pro BRAKE SPECIAL $49.95

Maysville Community College Fall 1994
Harrison & Parkville Carleille
NICHOLAS COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

8-PIECE CHICKEN TO GO ONLY $4.99
PoFolks
ALL YOU CAN EAT Mondays after 2 p.m.
$5.99

DANIEL A. EWEN, M.D., F.A.C.S.
EYE CENTER OF THE BLUEGRASS
A difference you can see...

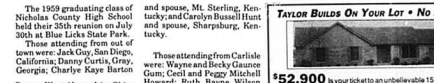

The United States is the leading paper manufacturing country in the world.

NCHS Class of 1959 has reunion

Class of 1959 members' names and photos.

Taylor Builds On Your Lot - No Down Payment

$12,900... your ticket to an unbeatable investment... BIRCH HOME

Model Available (606) 745-1336 (606) 293-2849

62 COLOR Portraits

ONLY $5.00 DEPOSIT $24.95 WHEN DELIVERED

NEW! Glamour FREE BACKGROUNDS & FASHIONS ENSEMBLES

Carlsile IGA 365 East Main Street - Carlsile Saturday, August 6 11:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

PoFolks STEAK ROUNDUP CLAIM YOUR STEAK! 8oz. Chuck $4.99 7oz. Ribeye $5.99 10oz. T-Bone $6.99 10oz. Filet $7.99 12oz. Filet $8.99