TTI Railway will donate the railway tie. A Lexington company will be paid by the Historical Society to move the engine, said Historical Society Co-Chairman Jean Conley last Thursday morning.

Another court concern centered on ways to improve the county's roads with asphalt...
Tom Ralston, area manager of Hinkle Contracting, Paris, told magistrates his company would provide asphalt and labor for 233 acres. When asked by Stacy how much a mile that would amount to, Ralston came up with the figure of $29,700.
