Kentucky Utilities seeking former customers

LEXINGTON, Kentucky (August 18, 1994) — Kentucky Utilities Company (KUC) is distributing savings refunds that were received on behalf of its customers eligible under the former customers who are on KU service during the period June 1, 1985 through December 31, 1990.

The refund distribution plan was developed by KUC in response to a decision by the Kentucky Public Service Commission that allowed $50 million to be returned to the former customers who are on KU service during the period June 1, 1985 through December 31, 1990.

SWD expects funding approval

SHARPSBURG — The Sharpsburg Water District in their monthly board meeting last week announced that remaining funding for their Phase I water line extension project from Farmers Home Administration should be approved late this fall. Funding totaling $150,000 has already been approved from the Appalachian Regional Commission toward the project.

For more information contact the Water Office in Sharpsburg at 247-2961. Prospective customers are also encouraged to contact their local state representative.

Celebration is successful

Earth Day Celebration in Harrison County on May 23, 1994, that was attended by over 500 people!

Each teacher that hosted these sessions received 3 valuable teaching aids. They were as follows: The November, 1993, special issue of National Geographic, "Water: THE POWER, PROMISE AND TURMOIL OF NORTH AMERICA'S FRESH WATER".

RC&D completes water education

John Heisk, President of the Licking River Valley RC&D Council, announced that the groundwater education project was completed in July in the RC&D areas.

The groundwater model was purchased from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point College of Natural Resources and demonstrated quite ably by Mrs. Kim Switzer, a member of the Community Farm Alliance and a local resident.

Kim Switzer, right, instructs on groundwater concerning a Licking River RC&D project.
