Henton Jr., USRA representative in Lexington, said he just didn't know what the time line would be now that the list is out. Furnish said from his Harrison County farm.
Henton visited Nicholas County in September when it was first thought the local office was on the closure list. However, an official paper order kept him from revealing other Kentucky counties on the closure list. Since his visit, a committee to keep the ASCS office open formed. Farmers and community leaders became members.
"We're waiting for more information before we get into any official notices," Furnish said.

Cantata Dec. 10-11
The Carlisle Community Christmas Cantata, 11th Home for Christmas, will be presented at Carlisle First Baptist Church this weekend. Performances will be Saturday evening 7:00 and Sunday at 8:00.
Members from many of the community's churches, including the CMC (Christian Methodist Episcopal) Church, Carlisle Christian Church, First Christian Church, Carlisle United Methodist, Carlisle Presbyterian and Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, join to form the choir.
This year's cantata is a musical about family and hope in the golden days of radio, combining the music with a dramatic presentation about how a family handles the stress of the world situation in late 1941.
The cantata audience will enjoy the sounds of the big band era and share both the joy and the trials of a Christian family trying to make sense of the world situation in late 1941.
