workplace in classes involving Business Offices. "Right now, everything in the business world involves com-puters. And so far we've been trained in Dos and Windows so I feel this is a good prepatory program, and one we couldn't program, and one we couldn't Although Robbie Hughes, a senior at NCHS, is participating in Machine Shop at Harrison County, he has also taken elec-tronics systems.

"In the future, I would like to into the field of air condigo into the field of air condi-tioning and heating systems and maybe even start my own busi-ness. I know this is a field where you can more than earn a living and I want to learn all I can about it now, "Hughes said." "And even i'I don't use all that I have learned right away, vocational training provides us with practical knowledge we will use in many areas."
