

Woodcarver artist visits hometown

By Leigh Stone
Of The Carlisle Mercury Staff
CARLSLE, Pa. — Eugene Snapp, an artist from Carlisle, Pa., is visiting his hometown for the first time in 25 years.

The Carlisle artist returned to his hometown for the first time in 25 years. He is the grandson of Nicholas Constantine Stanley and Ada Laura Blake.

Schnapp's school class, Johnny Caswell, asked Schnapp to show his wood artwork to the Carlisle.

"I came here to see old friends, like Johnny. If I will anything, that's going on the cake," Schnapp said.

The wood items Schnapp had on display were from wood from Caswell Family Farms Inc.

Schnapp's work takes anywhere from five minutes to four weeks to complete.

The wood works can be merely beautiful or functional.

Handspun, a lovely amber, orange, is Kentucky's hardest and heaviest wood.

The artwork ranges in price from $25 up to $3,500.
