Commissioners to meet tonight

The Board of Commissioners of the Nicholas County Water District will meet on Thursday, July 28, 1994 at 5:00 p.m. for the purpose of hiring a meter reader. Meeting will take place at 1105 Broadway, Nicholas County Water District Office.

Festival adds new event

The Salt Lick Homecoming Committee is proud to announce the addition of a major entertainment event added to the 16th Annual Festival.
 The Kentucky Opry has been booked and will perform 8 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 4 with ticket information to be announced.
 The Kentucky Opry features some of the finest multi-talented musicians in Eastern Kentucky. In addition, the Junior Opry has been booked for a free concert 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 3. These young junior all stars will perform some of the favorite songs and are guaranteed to entertain.
 Additional plans are underway. Some popular groups include the Bob Harmon Band, the Second Helping Band, and the Silverado Band. The $25,000 Salt Lick Back Hole-in-One, the annual Classes and Beds Car Show are all scheduled.
 New ideas and members welcome. For information, contact Brad Prosser at 683-5041 or Byrd Perry at 683-4391. Or write Homecoming Festival, P.O. Box 71, Salt Lick, KY 40371. Spaces are reserved for all vendors at this time.
