Rusty, the family reader from Chihuahua, jumped on the couch behind Helen's chair and settled contentedly in the yellow blankets Helen recollects the war days.

Leon was born in 1914 and died in 1985. Charlie was born in 1920 and died in 1947. Helen read, "Stanley was born Nov.

 know I did?"

Other memories of those years come to mind, too. Once, in a theater with her family, a news reel of a guard flashed on the screen.
 "Oh there's Charles!" I said. "I wanted to go see that man running the picture, but they wouldn't let me. They said it wasn't him. But it was him. I knew it was. I was always close to Charles."

She later talked with Charles and he told Jo he was in the reel where that news reel was filmed.

From oldest to youngest, the children of Sherman and Ethel McCarty were Ray, Jo, Charles, Maxine, Sophie, Marvin, Opal and twins Wanda Kay and Wilma Ray. The family grew up in Bourbon and Bath counties.

 from left was Charles, who died in Jan. 1981; then Ray, who died in 1984; both served in World War I; then Marvin, her brother who served in the Korean Conflict; next was Jo's son, Harold

 Mike Kenney after the loss against Campbell County.

After their final game, Michella Hopkins was presented a trophy for the All-Tournament Team. Michella played well all season long and erupted during the district and regional tournaments. She made several key hits and diving catches.
