Park offers free entry: Lexington, Kentucky—Residents of Harrison, Bourbon, Nicholas, and Bath Counties will be honored on June 25, 1994, at the Kentucky Horse Park for "County Days" Celebration.

Due to the ever widening reputation, the Kentucky Horse Park is proud to offer "County Days" again for the 1994 season. The program was designed to make Kentuckians aware of what the Park has to offer.

The Kentucky Horse Park has planned a spectacular season full of many special events, art gallery presentations and additional attractions for both the equine enthusiasts and visitors to Kentucky.

A valid drivers license from one of the counties honored will admit the driver and other family members to the Park free of charge. Attractions that are included in the free admission are the Park's movie presentation, the International Museum of the Horse, the William Kenton Galley, the Horse Dawn Tour, and the Parade of Breeds, the Walking Farm Tour, and the Hall of Champions, home of the champion Shoroughbred, Bobo Henry and Feroce, and standbreds Bumbling Willis, the American Saddle Horse Museum, located on the Kentucky Horse Park property, will also offer free admission.

Park hours are 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. everyday. The Kentucky Horse Park is located on Interstate 75, exit 20, just north of Lexington.
