tocky Department of Education, Frankfort told The Mercury Tuesday morning that to get an interim board member, the department would send a signed copy of Smoot's resignation.

Then, an information packet would be supplied to the superintendent, outlining instructions to obtain another candidate.

Persons may pick up applications at the superintendent's office and mail back to the department of education who will verify eligibility. The person must be a resident of Nicholas County and the district which Smoot served which was District 4, according to Fryman. Bill Birdwell of the Ky. Dept. of Education will conduct the interviews along with two members of the surrounding area — both residents of Nicholas County.

The Department of Education has 90 days to fill the seat but it usually doesn't take that long, Crockett said.

The interim board member would only serve until the general election, which is Nov. 8 this year, she said.

Board Chairman Louise Zachary said Tuesday morning she gave Smoot's written resignation to Superintendent Gilbert and Gilbert will file the notes with the Department of Education.

He is also looking for a place to live and a place for Jan to work.

In a special education instructor for the past 11 years, he will be working in an adjoining county. She isn't permitted to work in the Nicholas County school system because of the Kentucky Education Reform Act.

Randall's six-page resume stated that he has a bachelor of science degree in biology, health and physical education received 1966.

He is a Western Kentucky University graduate and has spent 11 years in special education instruction at the University in Hartford, Ky.

The Carlisle Mercury Staff
CARLISLE — Fifty-five members of the Nicholas County Historical Society took some tourism tips from Father Michael Weglicki's presentation of Sugar Creek, Ohio, during the annual dinner meeting held Friday, June 10 at the Passenger Depot.

Members began the meeting with social hour in the Depot's newly re-done garden, an endeavor of the Carlisle Garden Club.

Then sat down to a delicious dinner of roast pork, stuffed tomatoes, double baked potatoes, spinach salad with celery seed dressing, corn bread pudding and rolls.

The dinner was prepared by Dale Mitchell, a local caterer.

Officers of the historical society are Joan Conley and G.C. Myers, co-presidents; Gerald Watkins, secretary; and Eugene Neal, treasurer. New officers will be elected at the 7 p.m. Monday, June 27 meeting, Conley said.

G.C. Myers announced the new 14 members of the board of directors. They include Sherie Howard, Eugene Neal, Dorothy Neal, Naomi Dale, Phyllis Guinnie, Jimmy Shrest, Jean Corley, Michelle Knapp, Eddie Carter, Gerald Watkins, Josh Shugart, Bob Sparks, Ruth Hollar, and G.C. Myers.

Gladys Shrest, co-chairman of Tourism, told about plans for the upcoming Nicholas County courthouse re-dedication set for Saturday, June 25, and asked everyone to attend.

Magistrate Avery Thornburg said the possibility of crashing more rock, let her go, he said.
