Tansui to compete at conference

Berea, KY—Paratada Tansui, a graduate of Nicholas County High School, was one of five Berea College students who recently won the right to attend the upcoming Phi Beta Lambda National Leadership Conference in Anaheim, California. There, the Berea students will compete against other state delegates of the national collegiate business organization. Seventeen Berea students participated in the recent three-day state conference which was held in Louisville and attended by more than 420 members from Kentucky colleges and universities. Competition was held in both academic and performance events. Paratada is a junior administration major at the college. Her best parents are Dr. and Mrs. Leon Epps of Carlisle. Paratada placed first in the Public Speaking category.
