Organist Jerry Johnson will present an organ recital at Carlisle Presbyterian Church beginning 7 p.m. Sunday, May 22. The recital is free of charge. Johnson will perform with the help of music scholarship recipient Lynn Jacobson. Jim Caswell is a pianist.

Jacobson is a student of Johnson's. She is the 1993 American Guild of Organists Student Scholarship Winner.

The organ recital will feature masterworks by Bach, Handel, Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Puckham and hymn improvisations. Johnson will strive for a mix of music enjoyable to the audience.

The largest Pilcher organ ever built is still in use at the War Memorial Auditorium in Louisville, Ky. This organ contains four manuals and 88 ranks of pipes. Narrington stated Narrington obtained some information from the 1928 Organ Historical Society about the Pilcher organ. The builder was originally from Kent, England and eventually settled in Louisville, Ky. Pilcher organs were built in churches throughout the U.S.

The firm continued in Louisville until 1944 when M. P. Walker Inc. of Hagerstown, Maryland, purchased the stocks and interests of the Pilcher Company.

JIM THOMAS ON CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS
I'm not taking any campaign contributions. I believe your vote is more powerful than that.
Why should anyone have to spend $30,000 to $40,000 to get a job that pays about $18,000 a year?
Maybe this makes sense to you and me, but not to my opponent.
As of May 12, 1994, he had spent $34,517.88. Some of that money came from Louisville lawyers representing by insurance interests. I spent $3,551.85, or about one tenth of that amount.
Which candidate do you think will be free to represent your best interests?

Humorist to speak at HCHS

Hear "Humor On The Hill" from Carl Hurley, noted as "America's funniest" professor, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, May 28 at the Harrison County High School Auditorium.

Tickets are $5 each and may be purchased from any bookstore, the Wal-Mart, highway, Bluegrass Jewelry, WCVN, Ky Cardinal Cheese, Smith Insurance, Caldwell Banker, Real Estate or Lee & Co. Real Estate.

The evening will also feature music, storytelling, local talent and door prizes.

Hurley, a member of the National Speakers Association, is originally from the Appalachian mountains of Laurel County, Columbia.

Carl Hurley

For eight years he was EKU's coordinator of secondary education programs and a professor. Throughout his career, he loved "livening up" otherwise boring conferences.

He liked public speaking so much he decided to pursue it as a career in 1982.

Today, he is sought after as a speaker at teacher in-service days, university lectureships, seminars, and workshops for business and industry.

Hurley's clients range from IBM to Kentucky Fried Chicken, Texas Instruments, Kentucky Beef Cattle Association, Rotary Club of Cincinnati, and many more.

One of the many comments said Hurley was from Lynwood Schrader of the Kentucky Utilities Company. "You combine humor with a motivational punch that is most effective. You are one of the most effective and well-revered speakers we've had at our management conferences."
