think his view that it takes time and effort to get anything done. And hard work. I feel like he loved what he did. He instilled in his players a love for the game and that's what we try to do here. I hope he respects what we try to do. But I think as players, we gained more from him than usual. Things like pride and character were important to him."

Ron Baker, athletic director/assistant principal, NCHS: "I've known Kimball for long time. He's very devoted to these young people and known for his coaching."

Gary Williams, NCHS: "When I was growing up, he was coach. I had him as a coach in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. We played teams around Lexington and in Jessamine County. He would always teach us right from wrong. Now, I know when little league is gonna start practice. He's at the field an hour before it starts. I think he's doing a good job."

Martha Taylor, Food Service Supervisor, Nicholas County Schools: "I've known Kimball forever. Kimball is an enthusiastic person who is really interested in young people and is very supportive of everything they do."

John-Mark Hack has joined the Nicholas County Extension Office as 4-H and youth coordinator.

day on a bus. There was no such thing as a good highway back then."

Later, he revealed another worthy opponent. "The Cynthiana team was good."

Another man Booth looked up to was Coach Tebey Rose. "He probably meant more to me than anyone in my life. He was my coach from the fifth grade until my junior year when he went to Harrodsburg. He was good with the players and one of the smartest persons I have ever met."
