Wills

can't increase the tobacco tax. Gun control was his second biggest concern. "I don't think we need any concessions on our Constitutional Rights," Wills believes it isn't Constitutional to make an abridgement of the Constitution without an amendment.

MATTHEW WILLS U.S. CONGRESS

Reasons To Elect Matthew Wills
Your Rights
Matthew Wills believes that the U.S. Government should not make concessions in the fundamental rights granted to us in our Bill of Rights, including our right to bear arms.
Federal Taxes
Matthew Wills believes that there should be a reduction in the Federal income tax.

Matthew Wills opposes any increase in tobacco taxes. He supports increased exports to foreign markets.
Commitment To You
Matthew Wills makes the commitment to be your full-time voice in Washington.
Vote for Matthew Wills on November 8 For A Better America — And A Better Kentucky.
