10 YEARS AGO Thursday, Nov. 1, 1984 Rainy weather across the Commonwealth last week has limited field work, slowing down chalking corn and soybean harvesting. Tobacco stripping has begun slowly by the weather. Much of the tobacco crop was in high case last week, which has delayed stripping. The Nicholas County El. 30 YEARS AGO Thursday, Oct. 31, 1974 The 1974 Tobacco Festival has been set for Thursday, Nov. 10 at the Armory. The Nicholas County El. band member, you would have a way of knowing of the countless hours of practice they put in, almost daily. But their hard work and dedication has certainly paid off. If you have watched their performance during half-time on Friday nights, you know what I am talking about. They are awesome!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR Honor Society to sponsor Giving Tree again this year. Dear Editor: We realize it is quite a few weeks until Christmas. However, many people begin their shopping early to avoid the rush. It is for this reason we are writing a letter to the community. Last year, the National Junior Honor Society sponsored a "Giving Tree" for the nursing home. Each child wishing to participate brought an inexpensive, wrapped gift from home labeled for a man, a woman, or either. The gifts included things such as soap, tinners, stampers, stationery, socks, doties, materials for making pillows, etc. The response was tremendous. We had several gifts left after we shared over 100 gifts. We wish everyone could have shared the joy the students and patients experienced when the gifts were received. It was truly the best part of my Christmas. We had several gifts left after each patient received two gifts. We had the extra gifts to be distributed to patients in the hospital on Christmas morning.

Nicholas Band earns achievements and is awesome! Dear Editor: The Nicholas County School system has several groups and organizations that we should be proud of. But there is one group in particular whose achievements have gone unrecognized by many, and that is the Nicholas County High School Marching Band. I realize that unless you are a parent or close friend of

LEIGH'S LINES. DORIS H. LEIGH STONE, MANAGING EDITOR

Meet some photos and gals who believe in making a difference in a lot of ways. Come to The Annual Haunted House, sponsored by Tourism Inc. from 7 to 10 p.m. Oct. 28-31. The Old Man, Mrs. St. Mary's. Readers, check your scrapbooks - if you're missing any photos, please bring them to the office. Some of our office and take a look! My quest for a new photo film system began last Wednesday when Peggy Seibers came to the office to pick up two photos I had submitted. I found one photo right away, but had to sort several minutes to find the other. I'd been missing a photo of me and my new photo system. I'd been missing a photo of me and my new photo system. I'd been missing a photo of me and my new photo system.

Whoever you believe the credit nothing tastes as good as being high. I have never, told me at last Thursday morning's ASCS committee meeting that two other local farmers he'd signed a petition to keep the ASCS office open. His assistants were Bob and Roger Frederick. "There's no way I could get that many signatures by myself and you gave me all the credits in the paper!" Paul exclaimed. Nicholas County Attorney Josh Conley and his staff are pleased to have Lida H. Farah Jr. as the assistant county attorney. Farah was sworn in by The Honorable Nicholas County District Court Judge David Melcher last Friday at the courthouse. Jon Sparks and I were at Carle's Drug Saturday when he told me about the preparations for the new teen center. Lida Farah. Much work will be done to elaborate the center, which was dedicated a grand opening this past weekend. A salute goes to the Kafe Carlisle committee, workers, and Ministerial Association, which have made the teen center what it is today. Nicholas County Elementary School Principal Gerald Hammon and I walked through the NCE last Saturday. The youngsters waved and said hello to their principal, not at all bashful. I must have been backward as a child because I was afraid of my elementary school principal, Mr. Beck! One time my elementary school principal thanked me for helping a 10 year old Yugoslavian girl, Gordana Petrovski, learn English. She'd moved from her country to our neighborhood and sat by me in our fifth grade class. Mr. Beck meant to make me feel good, but I was just so scared! Whereas the NCE students I saw last week acted like members of The Mr. Hammons Fan Club! It's Red Ribbon Week in the Nicholas County and County Judge Executive Chuck Smith supported a proclamation Oct. 24 in recognition of November National Hospice Month.
