LEIGH'S LINES

I met a future Nicholas County cheerleader last Friday. My friend Terrell called the County cheerleader last Friday.

Richard Gardner, a board member of Nicholas County Hospital, talked with me last Thursday about the reduction of employee hours at the hospital.

Did you see the determined look on Bluegrass Coach Greg Letcher's face Friday night? Coach Gary Williams looked pretty intense, too.

As one of the new appointed board members to the Nicholas County Hospital and Nursing Home, I would like to let the community know that I am glad to be a part of this board.

Clines, Craft say vows

Tammy Louise Cline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cline of Paris, and Christopher Allen Craft, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Heston of Millersburg, were married Saturday, September 4, at the Ruddle Mill Christian Church.

Miss April McKee of Millersburg was maid of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Kathleen Booth of Carle, Breckia Craft of Paris, Kim Tackitt of Carle, and Angie Brest of Carle.

Mr. Bryan Craft of Paris, brother of the groom, was best man. Serving as groomsmen were Brent Todd of Paris, Steven Abury of Versailles, Johnny Lawson of Millersburg, and Lanny Brannock of Carle.

Friends of the groom, lighted the candles and served as ushers. Mrs. Kay McKee, a special friend of the bride, read poetry in the ceremony.
