Church dedicates new building; remembers John T. Moore

The congregation of Calvary Church, which is located on Clintonsville Road in Bourbon County, held a dedication for its new building recently. The steeple the church was erected with John T. Moore memorial funds, and was dedicated in his memory at the service, at the time of his death in 1987, when he was killed in a truck accident, the congregation was in the planning stages of the relocation and building of a new church.

Mr. Moore was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Moore of Paris, and the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Ewell R. Lyons of Carlisle. He was married to the former Katherine D. Lyons of this county. Mrs. Katherine Moore Rainey was a featured soloist on the dedication program, and among the large crowd attending the program was Mr. and Mrs. Ewell R. Lyons, Mr. Michael Haines, and Mrs. Jerry Rainey and family.

Barteville UMC has come home
The Barteville United Methodist Church will be holding revival services starting September 27 through October 2. The nightly services will begin at 7:00 p.m. On Sunday morning, Sunday School is 10:00 a.m. and our worship service will begin at 11:00 a.m. Dr. Jack Whitte will bring the messages nightly at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday morning at 11:00 a.m. "Bro. Jack" as he prefers to be called, holds a B.S. degree from Southwest Missouri State College, and M.S. from Southern Illinois University, and M. Div. from Asbury Seminary and a Ph.D. from the University of Illinois. Rev. Whitte has pastored United Methodist Churches in Missouri and Kentucky and held numerous camps meeting across the nation. His assigned Bible centered preaching appeals to both youth and adults. The pastor Brenda Rount and members of the congregation extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend these special revival services. There will be special singing each night. Sunday morning is Homecoming services. We extend a very special invitation to each one. Lunch will be served after our morning worship. We ask and invite everyone to come join us, bring a covered dish and invite a friend.

COMMUNITY

Morning Glory
By Debbie Richardson

Tammy Kincaid has been selected for the Harrison County High School Homecoming Court. She is representing her senior class this Friday night. Good luck from all of us.
A reception in the couple's honor will be held Sunday afternoon on October 2, from 2 to 4 p.m. at their home, 107 Turreman Avenue, Carlisle. They would like to request the presence of all their friends and relatives. The couple request no gifts, please.

Susan Dunaway, Minnie White, and Maybelle Ritchie will be shopping in Cynthiana on Friday. Handi-glowers worth sends his long time friend, Hamp Peacor, a "Hello". He says, "Hamp, when it gets cooler, let's go again."
Ollie Studer returned from Vegas last week. She had a great time there. Her daughter and son-in-law, Linda and Jerry Duke, went with her to Vegas.
Tanny Kincaid, Allen Kincaid, and Angie Brown will have a birthday party this Friday at Gale Kincaid's home. Congratulations to Tino Buckler and Lill Billy Denkins on the arrival of their new baby, Ashley Renee Denkins. She was born at Harrison Memorial Hospital on September 2. She weighed 6 pounds 7 ounces. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Donkins of Sharpburg, and Mrs. Ronald Shaw of Paris, and the great granddaughter of Dorothy Richardson from Cynthiana. Tanny Kincaid, Judy, Angie Brown, and Brandon Higgins went to skating on Saturday at the Lexington Ice Skating Rink. After skating they went out for food at Kandi's and Kentucky Fried Chicken.

Koons, Snapp to exchange vows

Miss Sherrell Quinn of Lexington, Kentucky wishes to announce the forthcoming wedding of her daughter, Jacquelline Koons, to John R. Snapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Snapp of Carlisle.

Miss Koons is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fryman of Cynthiana, Kentucky and the great granddaughter of Mrs. Lonia Beard Watkins of Paris, Kentucky. Lyons' welcome a daughter

Leroy and Susan Dunaway, Rocky White, and Day and Minnie White finished housing all their babies on Wednesday. It is always nice to see the community women getting together each evening to take their daily walk. Those walking are: Judy Street, Catherine Harney, Frances Harney, Becky Riggs, Polly Ritchie, Linda Ritchie and Ben. Jay Bird Ritchie still takes his daily walks, but he takes his at a different time of day and different route, than the woman. Now why is this? Fanny Teel enjoyed a visit by her real good friend, life long friend, Maxine Seward, from Paris, on Tuesday. Trish and Lee Ross visited with Sonya Kincaid on Friday. Katie Laver, Brandon Hughes, and Justin Richardson picked back eyes in Katie's back yard on Friday. He had a good time playing together.

Wilson, Jones to say vows

Sally Wilson, of Carlisle, and Michael Jones of Cincinnati, Alabama, would like to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Jennifer Nicole-Jones to Michael Glen Grapsy. Michael is the son of Rev. Clarence and Thelma Glen of Grayson, Kentucky.

The Helping Hands at Irvingville Baptist Church met Monday evening for the girls hour for the Helen Haines. Helen and Mike Williams and George, George, and Dean Livings were Sunday dinner guests of Helen Fisher on Saturday. Karen McKee, Helen Williams, James Whalen, and Beth Brumages attended a teacher class on Thursday in Lexington. For lunch they went to Becker's Billie's. While there they got an autograph from Sam Dick from News Channel 27. George Livings and Helen Williams want to say to Beth Brumages, "See, you don't have to eat dinner at Helen Fisher's house to get your name in the paper. You just have to hang around with the "right" girls at work. George and Helen Fisher spent Sunday at Helen Williams' house in Paris.
