Nicholas PTA begins annual membership drive

CARLISLE Those who care about children can show just how much by becoming a member of the local parent teacher association.

The Nicholas County PTA is beginning its annual membership drive.

Everyone is encouraged to join. The $2 membership fee entitles participants to be a part of the decision making process of the PTA. Plus, participants will have a part in developing programs for local children.

There are several upcoming events. The first meeting and open house will begin at 7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 20.

The next event is the fall festival to be held in October. The time and date will be announced in an upcoming issue of The Carlissa Mercury.

The PTA is also planning a Santa Shop in December and Book Fair in the spring.

Highland Christiannaires in concert Sunday

The First Baptist Church of Carlisle will present the Highland Christiannaires in concert 7 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 20.

The Christiannaires are from Lexington and have performed locally before. The program of gospel music is free and open to the public.
