Carol and James Galbraith

Hollar-Galbraith

James Galbraith and Carol Hollar, both of Carlisle, were united in marriage in a ceremony officiated by The Rev. Steve Smith on Aug. 26, 1995 at the Tea Room of the Visitor's Center, Carlisle.

The bride was given away by her daughters, Penny and Suzanna McConnell.

Mary Janes Hatton was the bride's attendant. Kyle Galbraith was the groom's attendant.

A reception followed the ceremony with friends and family in attendance.

Sundys completes air assault school

Daren Sundys of May's Lick, a member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Morehead State University, has successfully completed Air Assault School at Fort Belvoir, Va., where he was awarded the coveted Army Air Assault Badge.

During the past summer, he spent two weeks in Burlington, Vt., at the Mountain Warfare School.

Cadet Sundays, an Army ROTC scholarship recipient, is a junior geology major. He will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army upon graduation and completion of the ROTC program.

Sundys is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Sundys and the grandson of Mr. Dorothy Sundys and the late Kendrick Sundys of Carlisle.

The first charity Christmas card, which now accounts for approximately 20 percent of the total sold, originated with the UNICEF card for Christmas 1949, designed by 7-year-old Jitka Semkova of Rudolfo, Czechoslovakia.

Bluegrass Jewelry will be closed Tuesday, December 26 so our employes may spend the holidays with their families.
