Church Corner

The following is an article written by a local church official, and does not necessarily reflect the views or opinions held by the Carle Mercury or Park Communications, Inc.

The use of symbolism at no time of the year more evident than at Christmas. Everywhere you look there is a symbol that reflects the meaning of Christmas.

The baby Jesus was standing in front of a department store window that had been decorated with anivestive scene. There was the baby Jesus, Mary, Joseph, the shepherds, Wise Men, and angels, and the animals. One of the ladies said to the other, "Would you look at that, the church is even going to honor us on Christmas!"

Have you ever considered the religious symbolism in even the smallest lights of Christmas? The following is a piece that I created many couple of years ago at Christmas. I reprint it here (as our unknown) in hopes that it will add a little meaning to the "little things of your Christmas."

Rev. Robert Thomas First Baptist Church, Carle. A candy maker in Indiana wanted to witness, he made Christmas Candy Cakes. He incorporated several symbols for the birth, ministry, and death of Christ.

He began with a stick of purple candy, while the red candy symbolize the Virgin Birth of Christ.

From the pulpit of Windy Hill Baptist Church, The Rev. Dr. Bishop, Pastor of E. Union Road, two miles out Rt. 125E, Service Time Sunday 9am. For more information, contact the church or Christian Day School call 289-8429.

Shortly after a man's return from his honeymoon, he conducted a simple marriage ceremony, conducted according to Jewish custom, was completed, and the couple left for their honeymoon. The man, who was very handsome, was very rich.

The woman Emperor Augustus, issued an edict that his subjects register in their city of origin. The family of Joseph originated in Bethlehem, so he was obliged to make the journey there from Nazareth.

It is a house could talk, what would it say about the way Christmas has changed? The play "The Christmas of the 1800s" by John Hamilton officiating. This Old House, "On Friday, December 22nd at 7:30 pm. and Sunday, December 24th at 10:30 am."

Blue Licks Christian play for Dec. 22 & 24. It is a house could talk, what would it say about the way Christmas has changed? The play "The Christmas of the 1800s" by John Hamilton officiating.

Blue Licks Christian Church will host a Christmas play for Dec. 22 & 24. It is a house could talk, what would it say about the way Christmas has changed? The play "The Christmas of the 1800s" by John Hamilton officiating.
