Natasha's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) The week begins on a very festive note. You are firmly ensconced in the bosom of family and friends. However, the upcoming work week is demanding.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A very special gift comes your way and the donor is more than happy with your grateful response. In turn, you are generous with those around you. Later in the week, it's a good time to turn attention to work.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) It seems you can never get enough of "decking the halls." You really enjoy this time of year. Spend time later in the week tending to the needs of co-workers.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You share a very special holiday, particularly with family members who are in very festive moods themselves. On the job front, big-wigs expect much of you and are likely to make some demands on your personal time. Weigh the fairness of this before acquiescing.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your patience is wearing thin with all this holiday frivolity and you're being a bit grumpy with people who don't deserve such treatment. Get back in touch with the child inside yourself.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Although you get some flak from family members who think you go overboard this time of year, you're still having a wonderful time. A child is a special source of joy. Some time is spent later in the week making gift exchanges.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You are thrilled when this time of year rolls around. However, it's important to pay attention to the spiritual meaning of the holiday. You are only fulfilled when your soul is satisfied. A child can help with this.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You spend some time this week trying to atone for that stinging remark you hurled at a relative across the holiday table. You really need to think before you speak. Toward the end of the week, you are happy with progress on the job.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You're sure if you hear one more seasonal song, you'll positively scream. However, not everyone around you is in agreement. Don't spoil the holiday season for those who really enjoy it. A family member can help you see things differently.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You are happy and content as you sit among the ribbons and wrapping paper, viewing the spoils of the holiday season. However, you need to gear up for tasks which await you on the job. Clients aren't so festive.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) It's a good time to plan a spontaneous New Year party for everyone you know. A loved one is particularly helpful to you in doing this. Don't be afraid that people have already made plans. Not everyone is committed.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Overindulging in holiday goodies finds you a bit queasy early in the week. Rest up to combat this. Your significant other is concerned about you. However, you can allay this person's fears by taking good care of yourself.

Dear Diane

by Diane Van Arsdale

DEAR DIANE:

I graduated from college a few years back and was lucky enough to get a good-paying job in my field. I eagerly set up my own apartment, bought a car, and generally, started my life as an adult.

Unfortunately, I overestimated my finances. I applied for just about every credit card I could think of. As you can well imagine, it was very easy for me to just go shopping on any given day and charge up a storm. Before I knew it, I had maxed out all the cards.

I find myself in quite a bit of financial trouble now. From month to month, I can barely pay my bills. As it is, I can only manage to pay the minimum due on each card and often have to juggle which one to pay and which one to delay. I'm being hounded by phone calls for payment. I just don't know what to do. I tried getting a loan to consolidate the debt, but I don't own a house and that's about the only way the banks told me they could lend me even more money.

Do you have any ideas on what I can do?

PENNILESS

DEAR PENNILESS

This isn't exactly my field of expertise, but I do know that credit card companies can be understanding if you are sincerely making an effort to repay them. However, I suggest that before you contact them on your own, you look for a consumer credit counseling service (look in your phone book). These people will go over your finances, contact the companies to whom you owe, and set up a repayment schedule for you that will be more comfortable for you. They can help you budget your money so that you can free yourself from this mess and one day look forward to being debtless. Good luck.

Send letters to Diane c/o King Features Weekly Service, 235 East 45th Street, New York, N.Y. 10017.
