

SOCIAL

Saltwell News

By Mrs. Fred Hollar

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Mark Devaney and son Danny of Leighton.

Our community extends sympathy to the family of Mrs. Frances Ward Buckler who passed away Monday at Bourbon General Hospital, Paris, after a long illness. Visitation was on Tuesday night at Lusk McFarland Funeral Home and funeral there on Wednesday morning, with burial in Paris Cemetery.

Mrs. Becky Gunn furnished dinner and dined with Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Gaunce on Monday.

Mrs. Sue Swell of Richmond and Ramona George were with Sunday supper group at Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollar. Mike also visited with Gary and Debbie Hollar and Leanne Hollar that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy were entertained with a miscellaneous shower by family and friends in Olive Hill on Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Betty Brady and Mr. and Mrs. David Barrett at her old home place and honoring Mrs. McCoy's 60th birthday.

Bob Kenney of Covington spent Sunday with Mrs. Gladys Kenney.

Our community regrets the passing and extends sympathy to the family of Mr. E. Delaney who passed away Wednesday night, Feb. 15 at Edgewood Manor Nursing Home in Cynthiana. Visitation was on Friday night with Masonic Rites at Masters-Gaunce Chapel and funeral was conducted by Rev. Robert Allen Saturday morning with burial in Carlisle Cemetery. Following the services a large number of family and friends enjoyed a lovely meal at the home.

Eugene Snapp and Jewel Vice are ready to meet your realty needs.

Vice opens new realty business

By Leigh Stone Of The Carlisle Mercury Staff CARLISLE—Jewel Vice and Eugene Snapp are ready to meet your real estate and business needs. Jewel Vice Realtor & Auctioneer, located at 11205 Broadway St., Carlisle, is open for business, whether one is interested in residential, commercial or farm property.

The people of Nicholas County and Carlisle and the surrounding counties are those we think we can best serve, Vice said. The men have known each other 30 years. Vice, a licensed realtor for 27 years, used to be actively involved in real estate. Then, he became owner of Best and Vice, 101 S. Broadway. Upon retirement in 1993, he wanted to return to public service.

My idea upon retirement was that I would go back into real estate. Early on, we saw fairly active. I wanted to get back into it," Vice said. Snapp retired in 1989 from the U.S. Postal Service. He'd been postmaster of Carlisle for several years. He did a lot longer after retirement. By 1990, he found that he had to get back into real estate.

Jewel Vice Realtor & Auctioneer will be open Monday through Saturday and can be

Births

Maternal grandparents are Gayle and Anne Liver of Carlisle. Paternal grandparents are Patsy Klawitter and Phillip Middleton of Paris. Maternal great-grandparents are Elia Donahue of Verona, Ky and Sarah Liver of Carlisle. The late paternal grand-grandparents are Ruth and Ota Curtis.

Mrs. Dolores Caswell dined with Mr. and Mrs. I.A. Gaunce and Amanda on Sunday. Rev. and Mrs. Jefferson and Rebecca also visited them in the afternoon.

Mrs. Dana and Danita Livingston spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Alberta Susie Blaine Earlywine was also supper guest of Mrs. Snapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle, Bobbie Doyle and friend Anna attended the University of KY Wildlife Basketball game at Rupp Arena on Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Saunders and children, Mrs. and Mrs. Jimmy Snapp and many others attended a supper and birthday party for the third birthday of Charlene Whitson and guests on Paris on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady and Mrs. Steve Kirby on arrival of an organ at Mary Childs Hospital on Mt. Sterling on Friday, February 17, on his 41st birthday. Dalton Jacob was welcomed home by his brother Norman. The mom and the baby are with Mrs. Brenda Melly.

The thought for the month: In this day of gathering gloom, there are four things you can do with your hands: 1) Wring them. 2) Fold them. 3) Put them in your pocket or 4) Lay them on some job that needs doing.

A game was led by Frances Howe, Charity Griffith won the prize. The hostess served delicious refreshments. Cinderella Sister exchanged Valentine girls.

Could you name all the quilt patterns in the Quilted Melba in our new newsletter? Elizabeth and Marge gave each one a spice ornament made from the recipe in the letter. The next meeting will be with Lois Hamm on March 2. The lesson will be "Careful in the Kitchen-Safety of Food" by Nettie Barnes.

EAST UNION HOMEMAKERS

The East Union Homemakers met Thursday night at the extension office. There were 6 people present. Elizabeth and Marge presented their lesson on "Careful in the Kitchen-Safety of Food" by Nettie Barnes.

Hospital Notes

2-24-95 thru 2-14-95 ADMISSIONS: CARLISLE: Evelyn Shaver, Lorena Faye Swain, Anne George, Arch Treadway, Kathy Thornburg, William Sams, Christopher McCarty, Christopher Walker, Jimmy Hunt, Dyan Shingleton, Robert Trussell, Christopher Earlywine, Brenda Blake, Paulette Blomfield, Elizabeth Purvis, Florine Hill, Shaulinda Bramley, Gerald Tom Kimes, Elizabeth Tedder, Cynthia Price, Jennifer English.

Dr. and Mrs. Duane Marchyn of Portsmouth, Ohio are proud to announce the birth of their daughter, Andrea Mae, born Feb. 20. The mother is Rachael Beth Marchyn. The Maternal grandfather is Glenn Booth at the nursing home. The grandmother is deceased.

The Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Raymond of Buffalo, New York. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Raymond of Buffalo, New York.

Dr. and Mrs. Duane Marchyn of Portsmouth, Ohio are proud to announce the birth of their daughter, Andrea Mae, born Feb. 20. The mother is Rachael Beth Marchyn. The Maternal grandfather is Glenn Booth at the nursing home. The grandmother is deceased.

Dr. and Mrs. Duane Marchyn of Portsmouth, Ohio are proud to announce the birth of their daughter, Andrea Mae, born Feb. 20. The mother is Rachael Beth Marchyn. The Maternal grandfather is Glenn Booth at the nursing home. The grandmother is deceased.

Dr. and Mrs. Duane Marchyn of Portsmouth, Ohio are proud to announce the birth of their daughter, Andrea Mae, born Feb. 20. The mother is Rachael Beth Marchyn. The Maternal grandfather is Glenn Booth at the nursing home. The grandmother is deceased.

Table with 4 columns: Filter, Application, Regular, Sale. Lists various car models and their prices.

Factory Sponsored Sale Saturday, March 4, 1995 Free Hot Dogs & Soft Drinks

Calvin and Hobbes

by Bill Watterson

by Cathy Oulawite

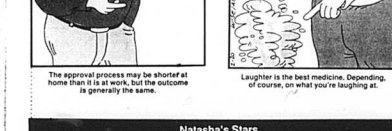

by Jerry Bitte

by Lynn Johnston

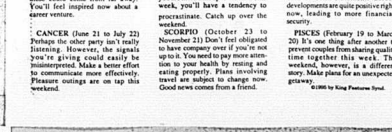

by Gary Wise and Lance Aldrich

Natasha's Stars

by Garry Wise and Lance Aldrich

by Garry Wise and Lance Aldrich

Dear Abby

Old-Fashioned Manners Enjoy Newfound Respect

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: After reading the letter from John Jay Mathon of Naples, Fla., I had to respond. He is the gentleman who was spalled at the obvious absence of manners when he asked those who were invited to a dinner to bring a gift.

My husband, Timothy, has never failed to open a door for me in the night months we have been together. When we go to a restaurant, he always pulls out my chair for me. He is an older man — he is 70 years old. When people call him "old-fashioned," he says, "I'm not old-fashioned; I just choose to respect women."

DEAR WENDY: Timothy sounds like a choice boyfriend. Take my advice: Treat him nice, and never, never let him go.

DEAR STIMPED: I remember the song, "Be In Love, Be Real." I wish you were in love with a good man.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.

DEAR MARY: I'm sorry to hear that you are having a hard time. I hope you can find a way to deal with it.