Moorefield Chapter meets

The Moorefield Homemakers met Jan. 7 at 7:30pm at the home of Alma Curtis with 10 members and our agent, Melba Burch answering the roll by naming our goals for 1995.

The devotionals were given by Frances Howe. She read about giving a poem "No Path Ahead and this thought: "When God moves a person, He will take around the heart, not the head."

Alma Curtis, President called for the minutes. We collected Birthdays. Penney's for each year for you are old. Melba made some announcements one was March 5th at 1:30 Council Meeting at the Extension Office.

Marge H. Wilson gave the lesson on "Nutritional Facts." She talked about the new labeling which went into effect in Aug. Vitamin A, C, Calcium and iron is the new information required to be on new containers. Also all about vitamins, cholesterol, fat. It was an interesting, informative lesson and very well given by our former agent.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Elizabeth Ellington. Games were led by Wanda Mathes and Marge H. Wilson. The February meeting will be at Elizabeth Ellington's home.

Supervintendent's Notebook

By Randy Everly
"Optimism live longer than pessimists, that's why you're here." The meeting was adjourned.

As we travel through life we are surrounded by situations that call for a lesson. This is our opportunity to grow as stronger as a person. These are our opportunities to grow.
