

SUNNYSIDE HOMEMAKERS

The SunnySide Homemakers met on Tuesday, January 17, 1995, at the home of Louise Carbert. Lavina McFarland called the meeting to order. Phyllis Brady gave the devotional reading Ephesians 6 and then read two poems entitled "What Will You Do With The Year That Is So New" and "Let Us Seek God's Guidance Through The Year." Following prayer, Eleanor Brannel read the minutes of the last meeting. We had seven members today. Roll Call was answered by 18 and we had two poems read. The treasurer's report was given. It was decided to give a fifty dollar gift. We signed two cards. We had a delicious noon meal following a song of grace.

Lavina McFarland gave the lesson "The New Food Labels" and had several cards for example. Louise showed us new things she had made. Phyllis Brady had a game won by Lavina.

The next meeting will be at Louise Carbert's and will be a soup dinner, on February 21.

JMHC nurses certified in pediatric life support

Good child medical care in Nicholas County got even better over last weekend when the registered nurses at Johnson Mathers Health Care completed Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS) certification.

McLane Denton, RN, CEN, manager of the emergency room at Johnson Mathers Health Care, accompanied Mary Jane Hutton, RN, and Carla Robinson, RN, to the St. Clair Regional Medical Center in Morehead for a weekend of intensive training covering a variety of pediatric emergencies.

The PALS course at St. Clair's was endorsed by the American Heart Association and the American Academy of Pediatrics.

"Our goal is to always improve. We took this course to

Joseph wins scholarship

George Joseph, son of Blom and Layla Joseph of Carlisle, was honored at the November meeting of the Bluegrass Chapter of ASM International, held in Lexington.

Joseph, a senior in the School of Materials Science and Engineering at the University of Kentucky, received a $1,000 award from the Iron and Steel Society for excellence in academics. A 1991 graduate of Nicholas County High School, he has earned numerous awards and honors during his studies at UK, and was also a scholarship award winner in 1993.

He has been listed in the "Who's Who Among American College Students" and been honored as the Most Outstanding Materials Student in his department at UK in both 1993 and 1994.

ASM International is a worldwide professional society dedicated to the advancement of knowledge in the areas of metallurgy, ceramics and other technical materials.

George Joseph of Carlisle (center) recently received a $1,000 scholarship award from the Iron and Steel Society for excellence in academics. He is a Nicholas County High School student attending the University of Kentucky. He is flanked by UK students Chris Wells and Julie Ward, recipients of $500 chapter awards.
