people helping with it. It was outstanding, thank you. We were glad to help, the mayor replied.

BILLIE LICKS
 Council also enthusiastically adopted a resolution in support of acquiring lodging and dining facilities at Blue Lakes State Park, located approximately 10 miles from Carlisle on U.S. 88. The resolution stated in part, "Our City and County residents support the park with camping, picnics, swimming, other various activities and special events."

Garrett made the motion to accept the resolution with Vaughn seconding the motion and all in favor.

FLYING STITCHES
 An open house is being planned for Carlisle's newest industry, according to Mayor Clark. Clark had talked with Flying Stitches owner Billy Brownrigg and said the tentative date was Monday, July 17, but no time was set.

The former ice house, which was cleaned by both county and city employees, is looking more ready all the time.

"The back part of the roof is leaking and it has to be fixed, but he'll be ready in the next two weeks. His wife, Sharon, was down there and she was tickled. It really surprised me how good it really does look," Clark said.

INSURANCE TAX
 The council approved the second reading of Ordinance 4, which reduces the insurance premium tax. "In my opinion, the reduction of this tax was made possible by the 4.2 vote granting the payroll tax," Clark said.

CITY LIGHTS
 Council agreed to place a city light bulb at Hooker Drugstore. Council discussed the topic for several minutes because of the possibility of several other businesses and residents wanting lights paid for by the city. "I want you to be prepared. I think you're opening up a can of worms," Mayor Clark stated according to Trooper Bill Hayes.

Public Hearing
 A public hearing has been set for 7 p.m. Monday, July 24 at the city building. The hearing will be held to obtain oral and written comments regarding the proposed use of Municipal Aid and Local Government Economic Assistance program funds for the upcoming fiscal year.

17, and at a Lexington hospital in a coma. According to City Clerk Mary Tapp, Faulconer was temporarily taken out of a coma by physicians, but passed away in a coma for medical reasons. She is still on a respirator. According to Trooper Bill Hayes, Faulconer's vehicle was hit head on in a ditch off U.S. 88 near Ellsville by another vehicle. Mayor Clark said only family members were permitted to visit but that he was permitted to see her one time.

lawn along with a display of miniature harnes. At 2 p.m. a pet show will be held in front of the courthouse on Main Street.

By 6:30 p.m. the parade on Main Street will begin. The Touring Fleet, olimers with their small cars and trucks, will participate along with the famous Shriners clowns.

A military aircraft fly-over is expected to be part of the parade. At 7:30 p.m., the USO show will feature local music talent. Afterward, there will be 1940s dance music for all to swing to until midnight.

Sunday, Aug. 6, events begin with a pig roast in the courthouse yard at noon. At 2 p.m., the Nicholas County Ministerial Association will host a memorial service on the courthouse lawn for the veterans of World War II. Everyone is asked to bring a lawn chair.

The service will include several music selections by the Community Choir, a 21-gun salute, and the playing of Taps. In preparation for the weekend, the local homemakers groups are asking for the community's help. Those with World War II uniforms or World War II memorabilia are asked to display in local store display windows. Store windows will be decorated with the WWII items in early August.

Ministerial flags will be for sale at $1 each, Street said. Proceeds will go toward the restoration of the lighted flag at the Nicholas County Courthouse.

Megan Denton in UK's PEPP

SCIENCE and Health Career Opportunities. "We want to foster their interest and give them a better foundation on which to build a successful application into a health profession school," said Frasier.

PEPP students are also offered supportive activities throughout their undergraduate career. Personal and academic counseling is provided as well as tutoring and assistance with the application process for professional school.

"The program has been tremendously successful in providing an excellent academic and experiential background for our students," said Carol Leslie, PEPP coordinator. "Additionally, we are particularly pleased by the number of former participants who have selected primary care specialties and rural practice locations," she said.

The program is sponsored by the Council on Higher Education. Information concerning PEPP can be obtained by calling the Office of Health Career Programs at 605-2197 or the toll-free number of the Outreach Center for Science and Health Career Opportunities (1-800-355-9500).
