Tolson finishes 2nd in national competition

TORRENCE, Calif. — Fred Tolson, a Carlisle resident who works at Green's Toyota in Lexington, finished second in the national finals of the Toyota Master Technician Skills Contest held at Toyota Motor Sales (TMS) U.S.A. headquarters in Torrance, Calif.

After finishing first in his region last February, Tolson advanced to the national finals where he excelled in a day-long contest against 17 other Toyota Master Technicians from around the country.

During the trip to California, the Master Technicians and their participants participated in activities at the Toyota Grand Prix Long Beach. Tolson and other contestants helped prepare and maintain the Toyota Celica used in this year's Toyota Pro-Celebrity Race which pits celebrities against professional drivers in a prelude to the Grand Prix Indy car event.

Tolson and other contestants worked along side celebrities such as actress Fritzy of "Beverly Hills 90210," Grant Shaw of "Melrose Place," Anthony Edwards of "E.R.," and Allison Blain of "The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air."
