CHAMBER
Directors elected by ballot last week include: President, Spud Marshall, vice president, and Connie Howard, Ann Brinary, Ron Barker, Dennis McDonald and Doug Garrett.

Brady said the membership drive is important, because it takes funding to do positive community enhancement.

The chamber is important because it provides information and employers like to study a community's economic base. They contact the Chamber of Commerce to provide information about the area's schools, employment, hospitals and services. If you don't have a chamber, you just lose out."

Without any funding other than dues, the Chamber provides information to local and prospective business. Dues pay for the annual college scholarship, Blackberry Festival '95, New, Today Book program for Head Start, mailings; utilities and telephone bill.

Jim Brown, president of Depot Bank of Carlisle has provided chamber with office space free of charge for the past two to three years. Brady said both individuals and businesses are encouraged to become members and provide input to the chamber and attend meetings held at the Chamber office Wed. Deposit Bank, 1000 S. Main St., Lexington. Streets the first Wednesday of each month at 7 p.m.

The president, thanked everyone who helped the chamber this past year. "So many people and organizations help us, like Tourism, Inc., Gladys Shroyer, Tourism's president, has been a big help and she's just one of the many who help us to continue to make things better in our community."

It is better to ask some of the questions than to know all the answers.

GARY GUTSWEIT

DEAR ABBY
DEAR ABBY: I have been meeting with the same tutor for 12 years, but he does not want to get married. He won't even talk about it. He had a very bad marriage the first time around, and my "commitment" is "Outside of trial, I would like to see if I can't get a divorce."

BRINGING UP FATHER

DEAR ABBY
DEAR ABBY: I agree with your daughter. Since you are not an speaking term to the bride, I would advise you not to be a member of the wedding party. As a member of the wedding party, you would probably get a few pictures, and her father could take some snapshots for you.

Dear Abby
DEAR ABBY: This is the "Elderly but Able, Generous, etc." - the 70-year-old gentleman who died and the wife who died. Why, would you've not worried, or someone to care for you?
