THE JOURNEY By Dr. B. Kent Duke First Christian Church, Carlisle, Ky.

My personal journey has long been informed, along with the Bible, by a serious study of world literature. In college, thirty years ago, I was introduced to John Calvin's Institutes of the Christian Religion...

His breathtaking illustrations that so hard being unable to do so keeps one in the wasteland. This is the hell of jail for contemporary humans that keeps us from the world of God...

Among the few authors hard fought to have made their way through the wasteland to spiritual affirmation is T.S. Eliot. In The Waste Land he verbalized the results of the loss of spiritual direction...

The greater torment, of I have said, End of the endless, in an age where the absolute Conclusion of all that is inconceivable. Speech without word and Word without speech...
