OBITUARIES

Josephine Threlkeld Lee, retired Registered Nurse and widow of John Joseph Lee, died March 22, 1995, at her residence in Summerville, SC.
She was born August 12, 1896, a daughter of the late Thomas Butler Threlkeld and the late Annette Threlkeld. She attended the Science High School at Shelbyville, Kentucky and the late Annette Threlkeld. She worked for several years in her father's private school in Nicholasville, Kentucky. She later graduated as a Registered Nurse from the Norton Infirmary in Louisville, Kentucky. She served in several hospitals in the Kentucky area.
During this period, she married John W. Hazelip (deceased) of Eden, Ky. They had one child, John W. Hazelip, Jr.
In 1929, she assumed the position as Superintendent of Johnson Memorial Hospital in Carlisle, Kentucky. In 1930, she married John Lee of Carlisle, Kentucky. Mr. Lee's employment with the Kentucky Central Life Insurance Company required several moves around Kentucky. Many warm friendships were formed and remembered in Carlisle, Paris, Richmond, Whitesburg, Winchester and throughout the state. In 1973, they moved to Lewisburg, Florida. Following the death of her husband in 1976, Mrs. Lee resided in the Presbyterian Home of South Carolina, near Charleston, SC. She was a former member of The Westminster Presbyterian Church in Henderson, TX.

She is survived by one son, Capt. Edw. John W. Hazelip of Charleston, SC; three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.
Gravestone services were conducted by Whaley McCreary Funeral Home, 2 pm, Monday, March 27 in Battle Grove Cemetery.
Friends may call after 1 pm Monday, March 27 at the funeral home.
