COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
AUDITOR OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS

A. B. CHANDLER III

144 CAPITOL ANNEX
FRANKFORT 40601

To the People of Kentucky
Honorable Brereton C. Jones, Governor
Ms. Crit Luallen, Secretary
Finance and Administration Cabinet
Ms. Kim Dursa, Secretary, Revenue Cabinet
Honorable Charles Smith, County Judge/Executive
Members of the Nicholas County Fiscal Court

Independent Auditor's Report

We have audited the statements of receipts, disbursements, and excess fees of the County Clerk and Sheriff of Nicholas County, Kentucky, for the year ended December 31, 1993. These financial statements are the responsibility of the County Clerk and Sheriff. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards: Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the Audit Guide for County Fee Officials issued by the Auditor of Public Accounts, Commonwealth of Kentucky. These standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The County Clerk and Sheriff prepare their financial statements on a prescribed basis of accounting that demonstrates compliance with the cash basis and laws of Kentucky, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the receipts, disbursements, and excess fees of the County Clerk and Sheriff for the year ended December 31, 1993, in conformity with the basis of accounting described above.

COMMENT AND RECOMMENDATION

Based on the results of our audit, we make the following comment and recommendation.

Fiscal Court Should Set Sheriff's Deputies Salaries Annually

Our review of the fiscal court order book and discussions with the Sheriff, disclosed that the fiscal court had not set maximum salaries for the Sheriff's deputies for calendar year 1993. KRS 64.530(3) states that the fiscal court shall fix annually the maximum amount, including fringe benefits, which the officer may expend for deputies and assistants. The fee official can determine the number of deputies and their individual compensation within the fiscal court limits. We recommend the fiscal court comply with KRS 64.530(3) and set maximum salaries and fringe benefits for the Sheriff's deputies on an annual basis.

Respectfully submitted,

A. B. Chandler III

Natasha's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) An innovative move pays off for you in business, but a difficulty could arise with a friend over money. Later in the week, you're introspective and not socially inclined.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Teamwork brings you success this week. However, it's not the right time to force issues with a higher-up in business. This person just isn't in a good mood. You feel disappointed by a friend.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Mixed trends affect your business picture. One project gets off the ground, but another could be at a stalemate. Be sensitive to a partner's feelings later in the week. This person is feeling somewhat neglected by you.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You could feel unappreciated at work this week, or perhaps you're bored with the usual routine. A coworker comes to your rescue with an innovative project. Follow a partner's lead for good times on the homefront. Avoid quarrels about intimacy.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You could receive work of a freelance nature, but someone at home is touchy or argumentative. This somewhat spoils things for you, but try to take it in stride. Concern about money could dampen your mood for socializing.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You'll sparkle with creativity this week and will be pleased with your new ideas, especially when others rally to support them. Try to be patient with a moody co-worker. Remember, everyone has their problems. Home responsibilities beckon this weekend.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You'll make some positive changes at home this week, but guard against spending too much money on pleasure interest. Try not to let a work concern get you down. Those things sometimes have a way of taking care of themselves.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Although you'll feel good about yourself in general this week, you still could lock horns with a relative about a domestic matter. It's best to seek out a neutral third party to negotiate this. You're being too stubborn.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You could overhear something that upsets you, but you'll make progress with an unfinished project nonetheless. Idle gossip shouldn't hold any power over you. Family concerns are your main priority this weekend.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Although you'll feel that one friend has a lot of interesting things to say, another friend could test your patience. However, you're being too hard on this person and should be more easygoing. Don't let reflection lead to worry.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Behind-the-scenes moves are best in business this week. There's some danger that you could present your views too forcibly because of your passionate belief in them. You are budget-minded this weekend.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Have faith in your own potential to tackle almost any problem which comes your way. Don't sell yourself short where business is concerned. What a friend has to say now makes a lot of sense.

Dear Abby

Unannounced Family Visitors Get No Welcome From Widow

by Abigail Van Buren

© 1995 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I am a 68-year-old widow with grown children, all of whom have homes, careers (or businesses) and active interests.

I am not wealthy, but I am financially independent and don't need to ask family members to come over to repair things or take me places. What is driving me crazy is their lack of respect for my privacy. I have asked them several times to please phone me before dropping in. There are days when, I don't feel like getting dressed and I prefer to read, watch TV or loaf all day. Or perhaps I am entertaining my "significant other" who lives across town.

When my family telephones me and I say I'm going out — or don't feel like having company — they come anyway! This irritates me, especially when my bed isn't made, there are dirty dishes in my sink, and my hair is in rollers.

Is it asking too much to insist on a telephone call? This popping-in business not only infuriates me, it drives my blood pressure up.

Now that this is off my chest, I feel better already. Thank you, Abby.

TOO MUCH ATTENTION
PORTLAND, MAINE

DEAR TOO MUCH: There's a lot to be said for getting something off one's chest, but I have another suggestion: When you desire privacy for any reason, pull down your shades, lock the doors and don't answer your doorbell.

DEAR ABBY: I have never written to you before, but I had to write immediately when I read your answer to "Mourning in Fresno," whose 25-year-old son had died. She wondered what to say when people asked her how many children she had, and you suggested she count only the living one.

If "Mourning" had lost her only child, would your answer have been the same?

For her to say, "I have no children" would not only deny her son's life, it would also deny what she had been for half of her life — a mother to that child.

A bereaved parent would feel guilty and disloyal failing to count the child who has died. "Mourning" would probably feel better if she replied, "I raised two sons." Then she could add a few remarks about her living son, steering the conversation in that direction. Eventually, she will feel more comfortable talking about the son who has died.

In the two years since our daughter's death, the wonderful people at Compassionate Friends have helped us to face this question and many others.

I hope "Mourning" can find a chapter of this support group in her area.

SANDEE McALPINE,
CINCINNATI

DEAR SANDEE McALPINE: Please accept my condolences on the loss of your daughter. I received many letters from parents who share your view. Thank you for mentioning Compassionate Friends. They provide an invaluable service, and can be contacted by writing to P.O. Box 3696, Oak Brook, Ill. 60522-3696.
