Lawrence receives UK Chancellor scholarship

LEXINGTON - A Carlisle student has received a merit scholarship to attend the University of Kentucky in the fall of 1995.

Kathryn M. Lawrence, a Nicholas County High School senior, has been awarded a Chancellor Scholarship valued at $1,000 a year for four years.

Lawrence is the daughter of Rusty and Brenda Lawrence of Carlisle.

This year's scholarship recipients were chosen from a pool of some 890 top students nationwide who applied for merit scholarships to attend the university this fall.

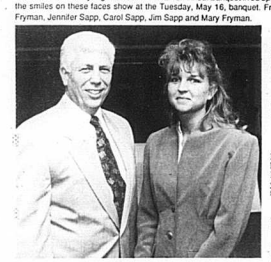
Two Carlisle seniors initiated into MSU honor society

MOREHEAD - Two Morehead State University seniors from Nicholas County have been initiated into the Phi Kappa interdisciplinary honor society at Morehead State University.

Inducted were:

* Camille Judge, accounting major from Moorefield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mathes. She is a member of the Accounting Club.
* Sarah Cox Payne, elementary education major from Carlisle. She is the wife of Kenneth Payne and is a member of the Kentucky Education Association, Kappa Delta Pi international honor society in education and several organizations for those who work with children with special needs. She is the daughter of Marshall H. Cox and Martha M. Cox.

Phi Kappa Phi initiates must be juniors, seniors, alumni or faculty members. To be eligible for membership, seniors must have at least a 3.6 grade point average.



CamilleJudge of Moorefield, right, was recently initiated into the Morehead State University chapter of Phi Kappa Phi national interdisciplinary honor society during its annual spring banquet. MSU President Ronald G. Eaglin attended the event to congratulate students on thier achievement.
