The World Hates Those Who Expose Evil

I came across this article in a Devotional Bible and it touched my heart so much that I wanted to share it with others.

A few years ago one of the leading golfers on the professional tour was invited to play in a foursome with Gerald Ford, then president of the United States, Jack Nicklaus, and Billy Graham...After the round of golf was finished, on of the other pros came up to the golfer and asked, "Hey, what was it like playing with the president and with Billy Graham?" The pro unleashed a torrent of cursing, and in a disgusted manner said, "I don't need Billy Graham stuffing religion down my throat." With that he turned on his heel and stormed off, heading for the practice tee.....Astonishing. Billy Graham had said not a word about God, Jesus, or religion, yet the pro had stormed away after the game accusing Billy of trying to ram religion down his throat. How can we explain this? It is really not difficult. Billy Graham didn't have to say a word; he didn't have to give a single sideward glance to make the pro feel uncomfortable. Billy Graham is so identified with religion, so associated with the things of God, that his very presence is enough to smother the wicked man who flees when no man pursues... The greater the holiness the greater the human hostility toward it. It seems insane. No man was ever more loving than Jesus Christ. Yet even His love provoked men to anger. His love was a perfect love, a transcendent and holy love, but His very love brought trauma to people. This kind of love is so majestic we can't stand it.

Don't worry if our love isn't accepted among the world. Just follow Christ in the scripture and Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. (Matthew 5:16).

Our reward will come form God, not men.
